ITALY THREATENING TO QUIT LEAGUE IF GENEVA INTERVENES

Ethiopia Invokes Article Ten of Covenant Binding Nations to Respect Territorial Rights—Rome Takes Strong Stand as Addis Ababa Protests Italian Troop Movements

ROME, June 20 (AP)—Italy tonight was authoritatively reported ready to follow Japan and Germany out of the League of Nations if the League Council intervenes in her dispute with Ethiopia.

That threat was voiced in high quarters after Ethiopia, in another note to Geneva, invoked Article X of the League Covenant, binding League members to respect the independence and territorial integrity of other nations.

NEW PROTEST
Two other developments today served to emphasize the growing tension between the European and the African kingdoms:

1. The Foreign Office received information that an Ethiopian aviator had torn the flag from an Italian Legation automobile at Addis Ababa, and the Italian minister there had protested vigorously.

2. A front-page article in the usually authoritative Giornale D'Italia said Ethiopia should be ousted from the League because of her alleged non-fulfillment of conditions under which she entered the Geneva body.

The Italian Government does not regard its controversy with Ethiopia as within the League's competence, it was stated.

Giornale's suggestion that Ethiopia be forced out of the League was based on allegations that the African Empire had not demonstrated ability to control all the territory governed from Addis Ababa, and had not fulfilled the agreement limiting

CABINET PARTY STUDIES ROADS

Provincial Government Tour of Vancouver Island Highway Gets Under Way

Headed by Hon. F. M. MacPherson, Minister of Public Works, the Government tour of Vancouver Island roads got under way late yesterday afternoon and will spend three days making a circuit of Island thoroughfares. The party stopped at Qualicum for the night.

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, was the second Cabinet member of the party, which also included Byron Johnson, M.P., first member for the city, now resident in New Westminster.

SEEK $300,000

Mr. MacPherson said the tour would embrace primary highways on the Island in a comprehensive circuit to be concluded on Saturday, with return to Victoria then. He declined to comment on the request of Island members in the Legislature that $300,000 be apportioned in Island work.

While no official comment was vouchsafed at this stage, growing Island consciousness of the importance of road conditions to Vancouver Island communities has made a manifest impression on the Government. The present tour is the first response.

PLEAS OF GUILTY NOT FORTHCOMING

Walters Decide at Last Minute to Ask for Counsel to Represent Them

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)
TACOMA, June 20 (AP)—Harrison M. Walters' last-minute decision today to ask for an attorney to explain the George Weyerhaeuser kidnap conspiracy indictment delayed for twenty-four hours what appeared to be the imminent guilty plea of his sad-faced nineteen-year-old wife and himself.

He and Margaret Thulin Walters, former Salt Lake City girl, had repeatedly rejected U.S. Judge E. E. Cushman's offer of legal counsel at Government expense, in the kidnapping, conspiracy and extortion letter indictments against them and the fugitive William Mahan.

Cabinet Resigns In Yugoslavia

BELOGRADE, June 20 (CP-Havas)—The Yugoslavian Cabinet resigned today.

The Government of Premier Borislav Yevich won a sweeping victory in the recent elections to the Yugoslavian Lower House. Opposition forces had been bitterly opposed to it, however, claiming terrorism in the elections. Croatians refused to sit when the House assembled.

COMMISSION TO CONTINUE

Bill Passes House Prolonging Life of Canada's Radio-Controlling Body

OTTAWA, June 20 (AP)—The Canadian Radio Commission will continue to control broadcasting in Canada until the end of next March at least, as a result of a bill passed through the House of Commons today. It goes to the Senate for ratification.

An insidious campaign has been conducted through the country to undermine confidence in radio as a public utility. Prime Minister R. B. Bennett declared. Appeals had been made to the Government to return radio stations to private control, but he opposed them.

IMPROVING STEADILY

A defence of the record of the commission was entered by the Prime Minister and echoed by Minister of Marine Alfred Durand. They submitted that, considering geographical and financial handicaps, the commission had done good work and its broadcasting services were improving steadily.

The Marine Minister announced a new regulation would be passed, superseding one which Liberals claimed would prevent any speaker from attacking provisions of existing legislation, a service handicap at election time.

C. E. Bothwell, Liberal, Swift Current, said there were complaints in Western Canada about the quality of the musical programmes supplied by the commission. There was too much jazz and very little good music.

E. J. Garland, U.F.A., Bow River, claimed there was a tendency toward monopoly control among small, independent stations. As an illustration, he said stations at North Bay, Timmins and Kirkland Lake, Ont., were under joint control. He suggested regulations to stop it.

STRIKERS AT OTTAWA TODAY

Representatives to Interview Government—Will Also Address Mass Meeting

OTTAWA, June 20 (AP)—The Government will receive eight representatives of British Columbia relief camp strikers tomorrow.

The men who are coming to Ottawa by arrangement with Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways, and Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, who went out to Regina to meet the main body of the strikers, will arrive early tomorrow morning. Exact time at which they will meet the Government has not been announced.

TENTATIVE ARRANGEMENTS
Tentative arrangements have been made by the National Unemployment Council of Ottawa. It was stated tonight, for the strikers' representatives to meet members of the Labor party on the House of Commons party to their interview with the Government.

It was also stated the delegates would address a mass meeting in a theatre here next Sunday night.

SUDBURY, Ont., June 20 (AP)—A crowd of about 1,000 gathered at the Canadian Pacific Railway station here tonight to greet the delegation of British Columbia relief camp strikers, passing through on their way to Ottawa.

Four members of the delegation addressed the crowd during the ten-minute stop.

Wins Vote of Confidence After Threatening Dissolution

PARIS, June 20 (CP-Havas)—Premier Pierre Laval tonight won a vote of confidence, 335 to 250, after threatening to dissolve the French Chamber if the Deputies did not concentrate on urgent questions of the day. Earlier, the Bank of France announced that the discount rate had been reduced to 5 per cent.

Insisting that the Deputies keep to the Chamber agenda, containing pressing matters regarding the Government's new fiscal powers and consolidating French finances, Premier Laval brought order out of a confused assembly.

Congress Unable to Decide Urgency of New Taxation Plan

President Roosevelt's Proposal Causes Utmost Confusion—Generally Expected Consideration of New Programme Will Not Be Handled Until Next Winter

WASHINGTON, June 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt's proposal of a new tax hammer to break up huge fortunes today threw Congress into utmost confusion as to whether or not immediate action was demanded, resulting in a first-hour setback for the executive's programme.

The Senate finance committee, at the day's outset, refused to sanction a move to incorporate a series of "wider distribution of wealth" amendments to the House-approved resolution extending $500,000,000 in nuisance taxes. But the move was sidetracked only temporarily.

ANSWERING REACTIONS
As observers began assaying political and financial reactions to the executive move for higher taxes on large individual and corporation incomes and new levies on inheritances, Democratic leaders were divided as to the practicability of obtaining action before the Summer adjournment.

The general impression was it should be considered "must" legislation "if possible" but that, under existing conditions, it would go over until next Winter.

One report that went unheeded was that President Roosevelt would send a letter to Chairman Harrison (D, Miss.) of the Senate finance committee, in a day or two informing him the new programme was not necessarily for immediate consideration.

TO CONSULT PRESIDENT
Chairman Doughton (D, N.C.) of the House ways and means committee, meanwhile announced he would call his group together immediately to decide what should be done. He indicated the President would be consulted first as to whether the new levies were wanted immediately.

WILL BUILD CLUBROOMS

Army and Navy Veterans to Erect New Headquarters at Cost of $35,000

Erection of a $35,000 three-story building as new clubrooms was authorized by the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, Victoria Unit No. 12, at its meeting last night. Tenders will be called immediately, and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy by December.

Situated on the northeast corner of Wharf and Broughton Streets opposite the proposed Marine Building, here, the structure will include all modern equipment.

Although nothing definite was announced last night, officials of the club expected that the first official function at the new building would be the anniversary dinner of the club in December.

MODERN STRUCTURE

The first floor will include a large rotunda for smoking concerts and entertainments. A refreshment bar will be established on this floor. On the second story of the building will be the large-sized billiard room, capable of holding from six to eight billiard tables. Adjoining will be an entertainment room, a modern library, a bowling alley and offices of the association.

The third floor will be a combination ballroom and theatre, with a dining-room adjoining. A stage will be built at one end, while a kitchen will be located near the dining-room. Officials of the club stated that more than 500 persons would be accommodated in the rotunda and ballroom.

Dominions Secretary Vigorously Defends Ottawa Agreements

Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas Emphasizes Great Contribution Made to Intra-Empire Trade and Claims Complete Justification by Results

LONDON, June 20 (AP)—A spirited defence of the Ottawa trade agreements was coupled today by J. H. Thomas, Dominions Secretary, with a renewed declaration of the complete equality of the Dominions under the terms of the Westminster statute.

DROWNED WHEN BOAT HITS LOG

Knox Reid, Vancouver Boy, Loses Life When Thrown Overboard by Sudden Impact

VANCOUVER, June 20 (AP)—Knox Reid, fifteen-year-old son of James Reid, of Vancouver, was drowned off Point Atkinson late today when the boat in which he and a companion were rowing struck a log, throwing young Reid into the water.

Bob Payne, with Reid at the time, said he dove overboard in an attempt to save his chum, but was unable to support him. Payne, near exhaustion, was rescued by a fishing boat.

According to police reports, Reid was standing in the bow of the open boat when it struck the log. British Columbia and Royal Canadian Mounted Police are conducting dragging operations.

Young Cabinet Minister Leaves London for Momentous Conversations in Paris—Will Proceed to Italy for Further Discussions With Mussolini on Naval and Air Pacts

Shortage of Raw Materials May Delay German Building

LONDON, June 20.—With the future of the Anglo-French relations and the fate of the proposed Western European air pact apparently hanging in the balance, Anthony Eden journeyed to Paris today to explain the new Anglo-German naval agreement to displeased Frenchmen.

Diplomatic quarters here discussed hints that France might take moves to "retaliate" for the understanding as Great Britain's thirty-eight-year-old negotiator, on his first foreign assignment since the recent Government shake-up, invited him to full Cabinet rank, conferred with Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin before leaving.

The conversations at Paris were regarded as the most momentous since the British and French Cabinet Ministers met here in February to draft the joint Anglo-French declaration on European security.

GOING TO ITALY

Captain Eden, Minister for League of Nations Affairs, also will go to Italy to meet Premier Benito Mussolini after his Paris visit, it was officially announced tonight.

He will discuss with Mussolini the same questions which will form the subject of his talk in Paris, namely the naval question and the next steps to be taken toward a Western air pact, the announcement said, adding that Mussolini welcomed Great Britain's proposal for Eden's visit.

One persistent report circulated here was that France would decline to join Great Britain in new representations to Lithuania concerning treatment of the German population in Memel. A signatory of the Memel Statute, France heretofore has signed notes to Lithuania.

Great Britain's naval conference met the German delegation, headed by Joachim von Ribbentrop, at the Admiralty again, and it was expected the conversations, intended to smooth out working of the agreement, would be concluded on Saturday.

HAUPTMANN HAS APPEAL HEARD

Judges Listen to Pleas for New Trial—Decision in Fall

TRENTON, N.J., June 20 (AP)—Fifteen judges of the Court of Errors and Appeals, five of them lay judges, tonight held the life of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted slayer of the Lindbergh baby, in their hands.

For four hours and a half today they listened to the pleas of the defence for a new trial and the reply of the State that testimony at the Flemington trial "was overwhelming and unanswerable." It was sufficient, the State added, "to satisfy a reasonable mind beyond a reasonable doubt."

"LAST-MINUTE THEORY"

The defence charged Hauptmann's constitutional rights were violated by a "last-minute theory" of the State as to how the child died, challenged the jurisdiction of the trial court and criticized both Attorney-General David T. Wilentz and Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, presiding judge.

The customary announcement that decision was reserved was made at the close of the hearing. The judges will study the trial records and the briefs submitted by both sides, and will render a decision some time in the Fall, probably October.

If his conviction is upheld Hauptmann will still have recourse to the Court of Pardon and then to the Supreme Court of the United States.

To Outlaw Pin Tables On Mainland

VANCOUVER, June 20 (AP)—The City Council today passed a by-law designed to outlaw pin tables of all kinds which superadded slot machines when the latter were declared illegal.

Under the by-law, tradesmen, who permit pin tables to be operated on their premises, render themselves liable to cancellation of their business licenses.

There had been considerable criticism of the decisions reached at Ottawa in 1932, said the Dominions Secretary, discussing the economic situation between the Dominions and Britain in the House of Commons. He presented figures so that the House could judge the position itself.

GREAT CONTRIBUTION
An showing the "great contribution" made by the Ottawa agreements, Mr. Thomas said Canada in 1932 exported to the United Kingdom goods and produce worth $43,000,000 (approximately $208,988,000).

In 1934 the figure was $50,500,000 (approximately $247,488,000), an increase of 17 per cent. In 1932 Britain exported to Canada $17,500,000 worth of goods. This increased 20 per cent to $21,000,000 in 1934.

Mr. Thomas also quoted figures for the other Dominions, claiming that they were complete justification of the Ottawa agreements, "having regard to our Imperial interests and remembering that we could not neglect the general value of our trade as a whole."

B.C. Farms Yielded Increased Outputs For Twelve Months

Large Gain in Volume of Products and $3,179,134 Improvement in Value Recorded During 1934—Commodities Worth $39,826,141

REPORTING on agricultural revenue for 1934, the British Columbia Department of Agriculture has estimated total production last year at $39,826,141, an increase of $3,179,134 for the year. This amounts to a gain of 8.67 per cent for the value of products from dairying, stock, fields and crops. Corresponding production in 1933 was $36,647,007. A general increase in the volume of products, but scant improvement in prices were noted.

Express increases were shown in the volume of dairy, poultry, fruit, grain, fodder, root, livestock, honey, wool, seeds and other products, with small decreases in vegetables, tobacco and hops.

Imports from other provinces of agricultural products increased from $9,314,369 to $10,133,545 during 1934. Foreign imports declined fractionally to $967,827, as against $971,867 in the year before. The total value of exports was $7,400,087, a gain of 14.95 per cent from 1933. Fruits, vegetables, and dairy products accounted for that result.

HEAVY FRUIT CROP
The fruit crop was the largest ever recorded in British Columbia, total production being 287,470,000 lbs., worth $6,770,497. In 1933 the output was 246,816,000 lbs., worth $5,964,878, indicating a gain of 16.47 per cent in volume and 13.50 per cent in value last year.

The aggregate of all vegetable crops was 64,935 tons, worth $2,096,700, being a decrease of 299 tons in volume but a gain of $157,320 in value. The value of grain crops was $3,670,000, a material increase from $2,982,000 in the year before. Fodder crops were worth $6,952,000, compared with $6,861,000 in 1933.

IS LARGE INDUSTRY

Dairy products, one of the largest individual items in the list, were worth $9,901,360 compared with $9,375,546 in the year before. Material increases were shown in the quantity of creamery and dairy butter, cheese, evaporated milk and ice cream. Production of milk was also up, due to a mild spring and abundance of pasture. Prices were slightly higher than in 1933.

Farm livestock, apart from increments, was held to the value of $14,261,000, though this figure does not go into production totals, being a capital rather than an income asset. Poultry stock increased from $1,927,000 in 1933, to $2,215,000 in 1934, partly due to restocking after serious depletion in former years. Egg production was 13,607,000 dozen, up 946,700 dozen for the year.

BEEES WERE BUSY
The honey crop was the largest ever recorded in the province, at 1,512,000 lbs., worth $219,251. This was a gain of quarter of a million pounds more than in the year pre-

Wool prices were lower, but the output was 954,000 lbs., for a gain of 127,000 lbs. during the year, valued at 10 cents per lb., unwashed. Hops to the value of $449,824, tobacco worth $62,800, and seed worth $254,676 completed the record, seed production doubling within twelve months. The report is based on figures compiled by G. H. Stewart, statistician of the British Columbia Department of Agriculture, and was made public this week by Hon. K. C. MacDonald.

VOTERS' LISTS OPEN IN RIDING

Federal Registration May Still Be Effected by Those Eligible Here

Further opportunity is afforded electors, who have not already done so, to make application for registration before the Federal lists close in the Victoria riding.

Applications may be made to James Wilson, registrar of electors, 322 Pemberton Building, for registration, correction of names, addresses, etc., appearing on the list, or transfers from one polling division to another within the electoral district of Victoria, and from one electoral district to another within the Dominion.

IN FOUR AREAS

The electoral district of Victoria consists of all of the City of Victoria, the Municipality of Oak Bay, the Municipality of Esquimalt, and that part of the Municipality of Saanich lying south of the centre lines of North Dairy Road, Richmond Avenue and Argyle Avenue, including off-shore islands.

British subjects of twenty-one years of age and over, subject to residence qualifications, are eligible to vote at a Federal election, when properly registered.

Bishop-Coadjutor To Be Consecrated On St. Peter's Day

Rev. Harold Eustace Sexton to Be Principal Figure in Impressive Rites at Christ Church Cathedral Next Saturday

ARRANGEMENTS for the long-anticipated event of the consecration and installation of Rev. Harold Eustace Sexton as Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of British Columbia have now been completed.

The Bishop-Coadjutor-elect, who will be given by the Bishop of Kootenay.

The singing of the hymn, "Jesus Where'er Thy People Meet," will precede the reading by the chancellor of the certificate of the election of the Bishop-Coadjutor by the synod of the diocese, following which he will also read the mandate given by Archbishop de Pénier bidding Bishop Schofield to perform the consecration.

The Dean of Columbia, Very Rev. C. S. Quainton, will say the Litany just prior to the presentation of the Bishop-Coadjutor-elect to Bishop Schofield by Bishop Lloyd and Bishop Wells.

The questions as set out in the order of service for consecration of bishops will then be put to the Bishop-Coadjutor-elect by Bishop Schofield, and after the answers have been given to these questions, the Bishop-Coadjutor-elect will retire to don the remainder of his episcopal robes, while the choir will sing Mendelssohn's anthem, "How Lovely Are the Messengers."

The "Veni, Creator Spiritus" will be sung on the return of the Bishop-Coadjutor-elect, bishops and congregation singing alternate verses.

The actual act of consecration will be performed by Bishop Schofield, together with other bishops present, and accompanied by the laying on of hands as the Bishop-Coadjutor-elect kneels before them.

The Bishop of the diocese will then give to the Bishop-Coadjutor a Bible, using the words of exhortation contained in the order for the consecration of bishops, viz., to give heed unto reading, exhortation and doctrine; to be a shepherd of Christ's flock, and to minister discipline.

During the singing of another hymn, "Hark, the Sound of Holy Voices," the offerings of the people will be taken, these to be devoted to the missionary appointments of the diocese. The presentation of aims will follow, and the Communion service will be resumed, those communicating to be only bishops, clergy and personal friends of the Bishop-Coadjutor.

HYMN AND PSALM
At the conclusion of the service and following the blessing, the hymn, "All for Jesus," and the psalm, "O Praise God in His Holiness," will be sung. On retiring, the Bishop-Coadjutor will be accompanied in the procession to the vestry by the Bishop of Kootenay.

Following the Saturday morning service, a luncheon will be given by Bishop Schofield and the laymen's committee of the diocese to the Bishop-Coadjutor, the visiting bishops, the clergy and representatives of the laity.

An instance of remarkable combination of clerical nomenclature took place some years ago in a church in England, when the vicar was a Mr. Russell and his two curates were Mr. Russell and Mr. Russell. They proved a very complete team, says The Church of England Newspaper, of ministerial activity.

Acting for Archbishop de Pénier, Bishop Schofield will commence the service of Holy Communion immediately after the bishops are in their places in the sanctuary. The Bishop of Spokane will read the Epistle and the Bishop of Olympia the Gospel. This will be immediately followed by the reciting of the Nicene Creed and the sermon.

TO EXEMPT CATALOGUES

Mail-Order Houses Obtain Concession in Advertising Legislation

OTTAWA, June 20.—Mail order catalogues now being printed will be exempted from the new provisions of the Criminal Code dealing with misleading advertising. The code amendments, based on the report of the Price Spreads Commission, were passed in the House of Commons tonight.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, said the mail order houses had explained they might have to reprint catalogues at great expense if the law applied to those being prepared and issued now. He obtained passage of an amendment to exempt the catalogues until January 1, 1936.

NO ADMISSION

The minister said the request was not an admission of misleading advertising on the part of the mail order houses, which sold all their goods under guarantee. The catalogues, however, did not conform in all respects to the new law.

Another amendment introduced by the minister tonight was to make certain initials marked on sawlogs, or logging equipment when found in second-hand shops, should be evidence of property. It was proposed at the instance of logging associations in British Columbia. It also passed.

DISTRIBUTE PROFITS

The new provision making it an offence for dealers to give discriminatory rebates to customers was altered slightly to exempt co-operative associations from its provisions. Mr. Guthrie said these societies had requested the change, as they commonly distributed their profits by rebates to customer members.

Included in the Criminal Code amendments passed were the provisions aimed at working employees longer than legal maximum hours or paying less than legal minimum wages.

Hon. Jan MacKenzie (Liberal, Vancouver Centre) said he wanted to register a new Liberal objection to the bill which had been previously expressed, without launching a new discussion.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU PLAN NOT ENDORSED

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday decided that the proposal of the Local Council of Women to establish employment bureaus at the Victoria High School and Victoria College for out-of-work pupils was a duplication of Government services. They did not endorse the council's motion, in which support of other public bodies was asked.

It was felt that the directors should do nothing that would encourage either the Provincial or Dominion Governments to relinquish their responsibility in connection with unemployment.

GENERAL FLEMING VISITOR TO CITY

Retired United States Army Officer Served With Distinguished in Two Campaigns

General Adrian Sebastian Fleming, who entered the United States army in 1895 upon being graduated from the United States Military Academy, is spending a short holiday at the Empress Hotel. He is accompanied by Mrs. Fleming.

General Fleming served during the entire duration of the Philippine rebellion and was decorated for conspicuous bravery upon two occasions. During the Great War he commanded the 158th Brigade, Field Artillery, 3rd Division, 4th Army Corps, American Expeditionary Force. He received the D.S.M. and Legion of Honor. General Fleming has resided in Portland, Ore., since retiring from active army service on June 17, 1921.

SAILORS CASES ARE REMANDED

The hearing of the charges against Patrick Driscoll of having incited members of the crew of the Canadian S.S. Southam to strike and against ten of the members of the crew of that vessel for having unlawfully combined to disobey the lawful commands of the captain of the ship, thereby impeding the purposes and navigation of the ship, has been postponed for a week.

The case was called in the provincial police court on Wednesday, when A. J. Patton made application to Magistrate Jay for postponement on the request of counsel from Vancouver, who could not be present.

This was met by Sgt. Richard Harvey, of the Provincial police, with a readiness to acquiesce, but he pointed out that at the end of the week's adjournment, it might be necessary for the prosecution to ask for still further remands. The vessel might not be here when the case is called next Wednesday, in which event, adjournments might have to follow until the ship again returns. This was agreed to, the bail to remain as at present.

MONTH LOST IN FISHING

Eighty Per Cent of Blueback Fleet Voted for Return to Work This Week

Coho salmon fishers in Gulf waters have lost a month of the useful commercial season through tieup of fleets in price disputes. It was pointed out yesterday by George J. Alexander, deputy commissioner of fisheries. The blueback season opened on May 15, and only a score of boats have got away yet to the fishing grounds, due to a variety of reasons.

As told to provincial officials, the wrangle emerged from agitation set up by a small minority of the fleet, many of the boats in which are individually owned and being kept idle at a distinct loss to their crews. On Sunday last 80 per cent of the fishermen had agreed upon a working arrangement with the cannerymen, on the basis of five cents per pound for bluebacks freshly out of the water, and six cents where dressed. The run came in with small fish this year, increasing the cost of handling.

READY TO WORK

Fishermen wanting to work petitioned through the British Columbia Protective Fishermen's Association and other recognized bodies, on a basis that would have released all fleets this week. A small minority of the men grouped in units of the Fishery and Cannery Workers' Union, affiliated with the Workers' Unity League, refused to agree, and boats stayed tied at their wharves.

Cannerymen, on the other hand, have said they will meet the men on an equitable basis, and on Sunday agreed the proposal advanced by 80 per cent of the known blueback fishermen in Gulf waters. Small but organized groups of dissenters succeeded in upsetting the arrangement for a general return to work.

though twenty boats got away from Cape Mudge for the fishing grounds, and few from other places. Those owning their own vessels and ready to work have complained that they have been intimidated by the action of agitators attempting to prolong the dispute without cause. Meanwhile, a month of the fishing season has already gone by. The blueback fisheries centre around Cape Mudge, Deep Bay, Nanaimo, Pender Harbor, Lasqueti Island and at other Gulf points.

DIRECTORS INVITED TO ATTEND OPENING

Directors and members of the Chamber of Commerce were invited yesterday to attend a banquet picnic to be held at Victoria Goldstream Park when this area will be opened officially to the public on June 26. The invitation came from Mayor David Leeming, who pointed out that all semi-public organizations in the city were being asked to attend the opening ceremony. The Chamber of Commerce members will be circled to this effect, it was decided.

NEW MINISTER IS ADVOCATED

Chamber Supports Fisheries Portfolio, if No Extra Cost Entailed

Appointment of a Federal Minister of Fisheries was advocated by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their meeting yesterday, which was made by the Canadian Fisheries Association, carried the proviso that the appointment entail no extra departmental cost. This rider was the partial victory, won by Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., who made a strong plea for the Chamber of Commerce to urge reduction of governmental costs. "We have to bear these costs out by the root," he declared, "and by urging the Government to appoint a Minister of Fisheries we are inviting it to spend more money. We Negotiation on Yen Valuations Affecting B.C.

PREMIER Pattullo announced yesterday that he had made further representations to Sir George Perley, at Ottawa, over the question of Japanese imports from this province. The British Columbia Government was reported as alarmed over the possibility of a boycott affecting export of British Columbia raw products to Japan. Business circles in the city and on the Mainland, meanwhile, seemed less concerned and prepared to wait the outcome of international negotiation on the value of the yen for duty purposes. Provincial reports show that Japan increased lumber purchases from British Columbia sharply in the last five months, but that in the past few weeks future orders have been hesitant.

should not place ourselves in the position where the Government, when criticized for its heavy expenditures, can say the Chamber of Commerce asked for it," he asserted.

URGE COSTS BE CUT

"Surely there must be someone at Ottawa who can do this work without us having to ask a Minister of Fisheries. A new minister will mean a new department, and all the costs that such a department will entail. If governmental costs are to be cut, it is up to us to do all in our power to urge that they be cut," Mr. Anscomb concluded.

Several other directors took the same view with the exception that while it was desirable not to increase the cost of governmental service, a minister might be appointed, nevertheless, to supervise one of the basic industries of the Dominion. In this category, some named William Crouch, Trustee W. T. Straith and Frank Partridge, who voiced their sentiments accordingly. As a consequence of this expression of opposition to the cost of such an appointment, the rider to the motion was added.

ABANDONMENT OF LINE SEEN

C.N.R. Asks Permission to Cease Operations to Sidney and Patricia Bay

Application has been made to the Railway Commission by the Canadian National Railway for permission to abandon 15.82 miles of its line in Sanich, particularly those portions serving Patricia Bay and Sidney, directors of the Chamber of Commerce were informed at their meeting yesterday.

Capt. George McGregor explained to the meeting that the car ferries were now coming direct to Victoria, and that the Patricia Bay slip no longer was being used. In fact, the wharf there had been damaged to such an extent during the Winter storm that a new one would be needed.

Since the closing down of the Sidney mill, there has been little freight carried on the C.N.R. line, another director stated.

REMAIN NEUTRAL

However, rather than make a definite stand that might impede any action the Board of Trade at Sidney might take, the directors decided to remain neutral in the matter.

Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., viewed the matter from an economic point of view. He claimed that there was an instance where an economy could be made without doing any great harm. "We are looking $100,000 a year through the C.N.R. and we should not stand in the way of any move to economize or consolidate," he declared.

Reeve William Crouch was of the same view and there was no line any longer.

The directors decided that they would not be represented at the Railway Commission hearing, but that they would notify the Sidney Board of Trade of what the C.N.R. plans to do.

FLOWER LOVERS ARE GIVEN TREAT

Non-Competitive Show at Duncan Compromises Some Unusually Fine Exhibits

DUNCAN, June 20—A delightful non-competitive flower show was held on Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the horticultural branch of the Cowichan Agricultural Hall. Among the exhibitors were E. W. Porward, of Ladysmith, who had a wonderful display of roses; Crookland Bros., whose sweet pea exhibit was much admired; Mrs. Sheridan-Rice, who showed lovely roses and rock plants; R. M. Palmer, who had a choice collection of lovely flowers artistically displayed; G. H. Hadwen, whose show included many lovely flowering shrubs; Mrs. W. M. Maclellan, who had a number of choice pot plants on view; C. H. Henniker, C. Wallich, H. A. Rhodes, J. H. Prichard, S. K. Matterson, P. B. Carbery, Mrs. E. Bailey, Mrs. B. F. Burroughs, Mrs. T. L. Dunkley and others. The attendance was very small, particularly in view of the fact that there was no charge, but those who were present enjoyed a genuine treat because of the variety and excellence of blooms on display.

Tea was served by the King's Daughters, under the direction of Miss M. E. Wilson, assisted by Mrs. F. R. Gooding and Mrs. W. P. Thompson, with Mrs. C. J. Jamison, the Misses Footner, and Ransome acting as waitresses.

WAGE ORDERS ARE APPLIED

Light and Heavy Deliveries by Road Covered in New Minimum Wages

Regulated hours of work and minimum wages were approved by the British Columbia Industrial Relations Board this week for commercial and freight transportation by road within the province. Adam Bell, chairman, announced yesterday. A series of three orders will go into effect on July 4, affecting drivers of heavy and light trucks, motor and pedal cycle messengers, dairy and bread deliveries.

Meanwhile, the transportation industry, exclusive of commercial carriage of freight by rail, water or air, is brought under the schedule of industries covered by the British Columbia Hours of Work Act.

DEFINITE TERMS

Those within the scope of the new orders must receive a basic minimum wage for a definite working week, a slightly higher rate for part-time work, and time and a half for overtime beyond certain limits. Trade agreements affecting some organizations where employees work for six weeks and then get a week's rest are recognized within the orders, which apply to all male employees, irrespective of age.

The basic minimum rate for operators of motor vehicles of 2,000 pounds net and over will be forty cents an hour for a week of from forty to fifty hours. Partial time is to be paid at not less than forty-five cents an hour under forty hours, while time and a half, or sixty cents an hour, is allowed between fifty and fifty-four hours weekly.

Operators of motor vehicles of less than 2,000 pounds net weight will receive not less than thirty cents, forty cents and fifty-two and a half cents in the same time categories.

MESSAGERS

Motorcyclists are to get twenty-five cents an hour for a week of from forty to forty-eight hours, and thirty cents for partial time under forty hours, with forty-eight hours as the maximum week. Push cyclists and foot messengers will have seventeen cents and twenty cents in the same time limits, with a maximum week of forty-eight hours.

Swampers and helpers on trucks will have minimum rates of thirty-five cents an hour for a fifty-hour week, forty cents when below forty hours, and fifty-two and a half cents between fifty and fifty-four hours.

HORSE-DRAWN VEHICLES

Tramsters are to receive not less than forty cents an hour for the regular week, forty-five cents for part time, and sixty cents between fifty and fifty-four hours weekly.

Drivers of horse and milk deliveries are to receive not less than forty cents an hour, and fair compensation in addition where they own the vehicle and equipment.

Generally, where uniforms are required, these must be supplied free by the firm.

Waiting time on call for duty must be paid for the same as regular working time.

Exemptions under the Hours of Work Act will apply to milk deliveries, where fifteen hours weekly in excess of the fifty-four hours will be permitted, but not to exceed a total of 378 hours in seven weeks, nor ten hours a day. This is designed to meet an existing arrangement in the trade. Mr. Bell explained.

The orders were gazetted yesterday, and will be in full effect on July 4.

LODGING HOUSES TO BE REVIEWED

Chief of Police Heatley Provides City Council With List of Buildings

Four "rooming houses" on Johnson Street are listed in a letter to the city council from Chief of Police Thomas Heatley as having "acquired the general reputation of common bawdy houses."

The chief points out that these buildings had been licensed as rooming houses by the city licence inspector, and submits the list with the comment that they had become generally known as "common bawdy houses," so that the council could act accordingly.

This may mean that the council will be compelled to cancel the rooming house licences, in which case the police will have no right to enter the buildings freely as has been the case in the past. How this will affect the work of the police in keeping conditions under control has not yet been determined.

Representatives Appointed From Music Teachers
Reginald Cox, president, and Miss Nora Sherwood, secretary, of the Victoria branch of the British Columbia Music Teachers' Association, will represent the organization at the annual meeting of the British Columbia Music Teachers' Federation to be held in Vancouver on July 10.
These delegates from the local society were named at the regular meeting held at the Y.W.C.A., with the vice-president, Mrs. Marion McGovern, presiding in the absence of the president, Mr. Cox.
It was decided to hold the annual picnic at Elk Lake on July 8 or 9, when it is hoped to have an address from Egerton Love, of Trinity College of Music. The secretary was instructed to send a letter of congratulation from the society to Dr. Ernest MacMillan in connection with the recent honor of knighthood conferred upon him.
The society also expressed best wishes to Miss Ogier, who is leaving shortly for England for an extended visit.
William J. Sheppard Buried at Royal Oak
There was a large attendance at the funeral of William J. Sheppard, held in St. Mary's Church yesterday. Rev. Canon Nunn conducted an impressive service. The hymns sung were "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Breath on Me, Breath of God," the choir in attendance. A profusion of beautiful floral tributes was received. The following were honorary pallbearers: P. C. Black, D. D. McTavish, O. B. Ormond, A. E. Thompson, W. H. Robertson, J. B. Munro and E. R. Hall. The active pallbearers were: O. C. Base, K. C. J. A. Grant, J. Whittle, H. Whiteside, A. W. Grant and F. A. Saunders.
The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park.

FRANCE'S PROBLEMS

The cry in France is for the re-establishment of budgetary equilibrium. To reach this desired end there is a substantial opinion in the business life of that country that devaluation is not a remedy or a solution of the present monetary impasse. That solution, indeed, is described as a confession of bankruptcy and impotence and a means of evading indispensable reforms which will have to be effected sooner or later. There is the strongest kind of opposition to all currency manipulation. The people, among the most thrifty in the world, want the franc to remain intangible in the general interest.

The franc in France is in an extremely strong position. It is true that it has been devalued to the extent of four-fifths of its pre-war value, but it is backed at present to the extent of 80 per cent of the gold reserves of the Bank of France. M. Herriot, shortly before the fall of the Flandin Government, made a strong speech against devaluation. It would mean, he said, a franc drifting at large, and who could guarantee that it would not bring about a fresh fall in sterling or the dollar? At the present moment, he said, France is living in the order of relative values. He could understand a plea for devaluation if the country was faced with international stabilization when sacrifices might have to be made as the price of an international agreement which would bring back an ordered world. He asked, however, how could France agree to a race in currency depreciation when it is agreed that currency stabilization is an essential condition of international order, perhaps of peace itself? He intimated that the only people wanting devaluation were speculators and political demagogues.

In France the business leaders are united in their belief that the following reforms are essential: (1) The constitution of a strong Government with a definite minimum duration of life. (2) The limitation of the powers of Parliament, which ought to be essentially a consultative committee. (3) Diminution of taxation and suppression of all purely fiscal duties. (4) Reduction in all civil and military pensions. (5) Concessions to private industry or abandonment of all State enterprises that show a loss. (6) A fresh conversion of State loans. (7) Recasting of social legislation to reduce in a substantial measure the expenditure it involves from State, county and municipal funds and from the resources of the employers. (8) Reorganization of the National Economic Council and expansion of its functions in order to make its members real technical advisers of the Government.

PRICES IN JAPAN

There are frequent complaints that Japanese competition in world markets is due to the low wages paid in that country. There are low wages but also there are low commodity prices, and, as a consequence, the standard of living among wage earners is probably just as good as it is elsewhere. In the Japanese capital food and clothes are available at most reasonable prices. It is possible to acquire two suits at prices ranging from $5 to $11.50, and a blue or grey overcoat can be purchased at from $3 to $9. A white rubber raincoat is as low priced as $1.75. Winter underwear only costs $2, and when the lighter variety is bought the charge is $1.20. Socks can be bought for five cents and a smart cotton shirt and collar for fifty cents. Shoes range in price from $1.50 to $5 a pair and rubber shoes from fifteen to twenty cents. Rents are also very low. In the case of two-roomed houses for the poorer working classes these can be rented at $6 a month and water is supplied. Electric light only costs fifty cents a month and gas is even cheaper. These prices illustrate how the standard of living is maintained in Japan with low wages.

THE GERMAN PEOPLE

No comment on the German people seems to fit them better than the one recently appearing from the pen of a correspondent in The London Times. It is a criticism which gives an outline of what has led up to the present totalitarian state, and it insinuates a comparison between Great Britain's development and that of Germany. What Germany has missed, says the correspondent, is that period of consolidation that Great Britain associates with Henry VIII and Elizabeth I. He thinks that if William I had been a wise sovereign and Bismarck had left the right successor, Germany might have passed through it in the last two generations. She is passing through it now. The process in attended with much suffering to discordant elements. The writer describes the public intelligence as "morbidly observant, morbidly jealous and morbidly resentful."

He writes of the German people as having an exceptionally strong racial sense and an exceptionally poor political history. Their intrinsic unity never hitherto embodied itself in a form of State. They have been hemmed in on all sides by powerful neighbors of an alien civilization. Great Britain's history has been the reverse. It used to be the common complaint of a Frenchman that the British do not know what a frontier is. The writer says: "We began by being a State and gradually changing the conception with sentiments of homeliness, familiarity and fellowship, we converted the State into a nation." Prussia, under the Hohenzollerns was moving the same way fifty years ago. It was hoped that Germany, "having consolidated her material and political civilization would broaden her political ideas and mellow her material aspirations; would, in fact, emerge from her delayed, self-conscious, aggressive adolescence into a secure and comparative maturity."

Germany believes that her chief contribution to political thought is the conception of organicism. That is the idea of the totalitarian state. It is of it that the Bishop of Durham said, that if such a State was thought of as a finality, neither religion, nor self-respect, nor philosophy, nor common sense could hold any true with it. Possibly it is the historic process through which the nation is passing to become an organism. Germany has never been "the calmly-satisfied great State." Her history is one of division and humiliation, of unity achieved, "only to be the prelude of a deeper humiliation still."

The writer then goes on to claim that Great Britain and Germany are historically incommensurable with each other; "both in practice and in speculation, therefore, they employ a different idiom. There is nothing in Great Britain corresponding to the racial fervor of the Germans; there is nothing corresponding to their academic eloquence. The writer asks, 'might we not recognize in certain German utterances about Aryans, Nords, Odin, Youth and Fiddlefrig sentiments, appropriate to 1935, a way of putting things natural to a people whose educated class has not like our own been bred and immersed in the affairs, and not necessarily therefore, imparting any concerted attack on the ethics or philosophy of the Christian faith? I ask for a suspension of judgment, a careful estimate of what is permanent and what is merely transitory, and in the distribution of our sympathies might we not spare something for the true German thinkers and scholars who hold on in silence, sick and sore as they must be at the juvenile orgies celebrating about them, which are making German science contemptible and delaying the day of German maturity?'"

MR. GEORGE GROSSMITH

An older generation remembers the thousand and one laughs it got out of Mr. George Grossmith, who has died at the age of sixty-one. He was not a singer, but he was an actor of an unusual type. He spoke his songs. He was discomfited on the stage and his movements and gestures always provoked fun. His whole composition was comedy, and in this realm, as well as in acting, he was an author. It was he who composed the still well-remembered song, "Yip-i-addy," and he was part author of such plays as "Bing Boys," "The Spring Chicken" and that rapturously-laughable comedy "A Night Out." He was always versatile, and when moving pictures came along he was among the first in England to make good in them. In 1894 he played a part in the ever-memorable "The Shop Girl." He was associated with Mr. Edward Laurillard in the production of "Potsah and Perlmutter" and "To-Night's the Night." For a time he was managing director of the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, but he resigned that position to devote himself to moving pictures. The name of George Grossmith was one to conjure with in the task of removing dull care. He was the comedian on the plane which makes history in comedy.

New Zealand might well furnish an object lesson in finance to Canada. In the past financial year the revenue totaled $28,126,000 and the expenditure $24,500,000, leaving a surplus of $1,626,000. The surplus is automatically applied in reducing deficits from the years 1931-1932 and 1933-1934. The public debt of New Zealand was decreased during the year by over $200,000,000. It is small wonder that New Zealand is enjoying that share of prosperity which goes with balanced budgets.

EDUCATION IN THE EAST

In the Malay States a somewhat elementary knowledge of English, plus a certain amount of confusion of ideas, produces remarkable results from Asiatic candidates for examinations. Thus we learn that "An isosceles triangle is a line on a map joining places with equal weather." "A parallel is a straight line that when produced to meet does not meet." "Days are longer in Summer than in Winter because heat expands everything." "The sun never sets on the British Empire because the British Empire is in the east and the sun sets in the west." The palm, however, must be awarded to the clerk who, in a petition to his European employer, delivered himself of this magnificent and unconvincing paraphrase on Kipling: "East is least and West is best!"

Note and Comment

A mind not to be changed by place or time
A mind is its own place, and in itself
Can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven.

—Milton

Readers of the newspapers are kept fairly well informed about almost everything that is going on in the terrestrial sphere, but very few newspapers receive, annually or semi-annually, advice about what is going on in regions beyond mortal ken. That is why we consider it a great privilege to hold communication at long intervals with our late friend Mike. Readers of this part of The Colonist will remember what Mike said they did with politicians in the regions of the blessed. We gather from what Mike said that it is not impossible for politicians to enter the pearly gates, but when they must not talk politics. The only politician who got in and persisted in talking politics because he objected to the "system" was thrown over the battlements into outer darkness, and his name is heard no more up there, although his name is occasionally mentioned down here. Sometimes he is called Satan and occasionally the Prince of Darkness.

That is what happened to the first agitator whose ambition it was to rule in Heaven and was condemned to reign in Hell. Peace was permanently established in Heaven. Unfortunately peace was not permanently established upon earth, for the first agitator, whose motto was rule or ruin, was permitted to roam about and agitate upon earth. The poet says words fell from his tongue like honey from the comb, and the first woman was beguiled and did eat. Instead of becoming as gods, the first man and the first woman were sentenced to lives of labor, to earn their bread by the sweat of their faces. That judgment has been appealed against, but the sentence stands to this day.

There is an obligation upon every man to do his share in the work of the world, but every man will not do his share if he can dodge his obligation. It is said that if a man will not work neither shall he eat. There are many men who will not work, but still manage to eat, in many cases manage to eat something more succulent than dry husks. There are many men who manage by schemes and dodges, by measures which are deserving of utter condemnation, to fare sumptuously and indulge in carnal pleasures, but they are living upon the fruits of the labors of other men.

This observation is not true entirely of one class of men. It is applicable to the working classes as well as to the business, the industrial and the purely speculative classes. There must be reforms, but reforms to be of value and permanence cannot be effected by violence and revolution.

The experience in other nations has shown that class wars are just as destructive to their effects as wars between nations. Are the conditions of the average citizen in Russia, where the individual is merged in the mass and compelled to work for the state, more desirable than they are in British countries, where the liberty and the independence of the individual is the supreme object of government and the strong bulwark of the social and industrial system? The idea of force is repugnant to the mind of every free man. If ever mortal man was inspired, the Scottish poet Burns was moved by the spirit of inspiration when he wrote, "We will drain our dearest veins, but we will be free!"

Unfortunately for the tranquility of the earth, there are hosts of agitators going to and fro and preaching the political doctrine of violence and force. We have heard strident voices coming in over the air announcing to all who will lend an ear, "these are our objectives, to be gained peacefully if possible, but by force if necessary." These things are subversive of the principle of freedom of speech. Freedom of speech is one thing, licence of speech quite a different thing. If an individual is willing to work when he can find work for his hands to do in times like these when so many willing workers are idle by circumstances, that individual should be protected against the violence of agitators who would force him to leave his job.

Perfect economic ideals are naturally very alluring to the minds of men whose dreams are of an earthly paradise, but the schemes of idealists must be accepted with reserve. Discussing the possibility of the establishment of a social credit Utopia in Alberta, The Hamilton Herald says: "It will be a most interesting experiment and a real education. Well, it certainly should be. If it fails, and fails, we shall have in our midst a province with ruined credit, peopled by dissatisfied bankrupts, who have been given a brief glimpse of what they conceived to be paradise, and we shall probably find that our whole intricate financial system has been pretty badly dislocated. An education indeed. It was Nero who set fire to Rome so that he could find the inspiration to write a sonnet. Some economic theorist might be enabled, by the ruins of Alberta, to write a complete refutation of the Aberhart Plan."

The dog was friendly, but—
He walked along Douglas Street with all outward evidence of a highly developed superiority complex, and at the end of a leather leash that was in his hand was a dog—a small dog—so small, in fact, that it attracted the attention of passers-by. The animal displayed a willingness to stop and be friendly with everybody, but each time that the little "doggie" tried to call a halt, the husky man would jerk at the leash and make the doggie jump.

The Necessary Attraction
The clerk in one of the leading hotels here had just finished explaining the good points of one of the hotel's choicest rooms to a tourist and his wife. The woman turned to the clerk and asked: "And has the room running water?"—G. B.

How is Your Torso?
Now that the subject has been uncovered, so to speak, there is room to doubt if the torso of a businessman or a politician would look any better than that of a newspaperman, in public print. In the lack of comparative evidence, the press at least can claim its torsos are clean.—S. G.

Beckoning a Beach
Rosa Bay, with its beautiful curving promenade, could be made even more attractive at very little cost. The following suggestion is passed on for consideration as a means to keep tourists in the city. Santa Monica beach was extended for several miles by driving piles, hundreds of yards out to sea. The waves, washing around the piles, threw up sand mounds, which, in turn, gathered more sand, and created a fine stretch of beach. At Rosa Bay, which at present lacks a beach along its entire front?—F. C. R.

Beautiful Suggestion!
From Buenos Aires comes a suggestion that should help the City Councils and committee to do away with some of its reversed lists. In an effort to make Buenos Aires one of the most beautiful cities in the world, the builder of the most attractive home and garden during a set period was given as a prize five years' tax exemption. How about the city doing the same? It could offer a prize of five years' tax exemption to the person who built the most attractive home and garden on any lot sold from the city's reversed list during the remainder of the year. This ought to stimulate not only the sale of reversed lands, but encourage construction work in the city.—F. C. R.

Nearly a "Door Jam"
The long arm of trade unionism reached across the ocean and a continent to place its finger on manufacture here. Not long ago the Victoria Trades and Labor Council was advised from England that Victoria-made doors would not be "hung" by union carpenters in the Old Country if they did not carry the union label. The local industry worked quickly and had a union all ready made and a label issued before the Trades Council here had begun its official investigation, and doors are being shipped and will, in all probability, be righteously "hung" in British homes in true British style.—R. A. G.

CAUSES OF DISCONTENT
Sir—The recent structures which the mayor of Vancouver has been making regarding the striking longshoremen, as also of the discontented men who have abandoned the relief camps, insisting that these disturbances have been occasioned by Communists, should have very little weight in the minds of the working masses who are capable of thinking.

THE CANCER FUND
Sir—A letter from Nina M. Holmes, of Dunedin, in today's paper suggests an inquiry as to what amount of the donations to the Cancer Fund are going to be used for experimentation on living animals? "No cruelty is useful," wrote the great Cicero. This quotation heads the cover page of The Abolitionist, organ of the Anti-Vivisection Society. And as Nina Holmes points out, there seems incompatibility between Christianity and barbarous sufferings inflicted on helpless creatures in the name of medical science. Who can imagine Christ, founder of Christianity, suggesting vivisection?

One does not have to be "dippy" about animals, or any kind of cruelty to wish that the human race could progress beyond the need of the horrors of present-day research. They are inflicted on humans as well as animals. And while there are without doubt many people who have received help (myself included) from modern medical and surgical skill, on the other side of the picture there is an appalling toll of suffering, mutilation, and death. The world is seeking a way out of war by trying to turn the spotlight on the financial profits of war.

The fact that millions and millions of dollars are involved in the serum industry in the United States and Europe, gives food for thought. I was told, a few years ago, by a biologist who undoubtedly knew what they were talking about, that the "germ theory" had been proved by the latest laboratory research to all wrong and that it would in time be completely reversed. At present, however, the knowledge was being withheld because of the upset it would cause to the extensive "interests" involved. We know that in industrial research new knowledge and invention is controlled by financial expediency. So my friend's story of the upset in the germ theory was probably by no means a fairy story.

VIMY RIDGE MEMORIAL
Sir—In view of the proposed unveiling ceremony next year of the Canadian Vimy Ridge Memorial by the Dominion's representatives and the Canadian Legion, may I suggest the following as a gesture of national good will. The legion to train a picked choir to sing a French national song in the French language, and also to lead the legion in the singing of "O Canada," and any sacred selection that may be chosen for the occasion.

Each branch of the legion could ask its members to submit their names to a list of names, and whether bass, tenor, etc. These names to be sent to whoever is chosen to conduct the final ensemble. To ensure a well-balanced choir, the conductor will then select his material from each branch, the separate units could then conduct their own practices, and, just before sailing, and on the voyage over, the conductor of the ensemble would have a splendid opportunity to put the final touches to the massed choir. This method, I may add, is identical with the assembling of the massed choirs at the Crystal Palace, London, England. Not only would this centre in-

HOW TO MAKE ICED TEA
Infuse six heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh boiling water. After six minutes strain liquid into two-quart container. While hot, add 1 1/2 cups of granulated sugar and the juice of 2 lemons. Stir well until sugar is dissolved. Fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding the cold water; otherwise liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chilled ice.

FUNNY-FACE HORSE
LONDON.—England's funniest-looking race horse is named Crook, after a famous French clown. He has a completely white face on a chestnut body, colorless wall eyes and no eyebrows. He has four white "stockings" on his legs, which make him look as if he were wearing apes. He wins a race occasionally at that.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY
From The Daily British Colonist of June 21, 1885.
Cordova Bay.—The drive in this charming spot has many attractions. The view from the drive is lovely and picturesque. The road is good until that at the foot of Cedar Hill is reached, which passes through an avenue of trees and is made with a hard surface. The drive is a pleasant one for the purpose of a picnic, and rather rough drive. A few days ago a car was driven on this road and it is in first-class condition, and enhance the pleasure of a drive over it greatly, while it would also add to the convenience for farmers.

Geological Survey—Professor J. M. Dawson, of the Dominion Geological Survey, and party, called on the schooner Corvina for the East Coast yesterday. Corvina and adjacent districts and islands will be thoroughly explored and mapped geologically. Questionnaire will also be visited and the usual measures and mineral deposits examined.

NO LAND GIFT CONSIDERED FOR HIGHWAY

Premier Pattullo Issues
Sharp Rebuke to Member for Lillooet

PROVINCE GLAD TO CO-OPERATE

Official denial from the head of the British Columbia Government that British Columbia is prepared to hand out land grants in connection with construction of the talked-of Alaska-Yukon Highway, came yesterday from Premier T. D.
Pattullo.

The Premier issued a prepared statement taking sharp issue with remarks attributed to George M.
Murray, Liberal member for Lillooet, while in Washington, D.C., this week. The statement reads as follows:

"Some months ago Representative Dimond, of Alaska, called on me and I assured him that British Columbia would be glad to cooperate with the Dominion Government and the United States in building an international highway to Alaska.

"I very much approve of the proposal to build an international highway extending from Alaska to Patagonia. So far as any land grant is concerned in respect of building through British Columbia, the Government will entertain nothing of the kind," the Premier's statement ended.

Referring to the Government's immediate programme of $1,500,000 for emergency road works, the Premier reiterated that it was proposed to spend the money advantageously in all portions of the province.

The rebuke to Mr. Murray followed Eastern dispatches, quoting the member for Lillooet in an expansive mood in reference to the Alaska road project, in a statement in which reference to land grants was indirectly made. The member for Lillooet, the Premier made clear, was speaking for himself, but not for the British Columbia Government.

ASSISTANT WILL BE HERE SHORTLY

Rev. E. W. Horton to Commence Duties at First United Church at End of Month

Cariboo and Victoria are making a ministerial exchange in the departure this week for Barkerville of Rev. G. G. Boothroyd, assistant minister at First United Church here for the past two years, and the expected arrival at the end of the month of Rev. E. W. Horton from Burns Lake, B.C., to take his place.
The new minister came to First United Church after a complete course in arts and theological training, and, in addition, an experience of several years in preaching and pastoral work. He was graduated in arts from the University of British Columbia and in theology from Union College, Vancouver, during which he spent three Summers in the mission fields of Alberta and British Columbia.

Ordained in 1932 by the British Columbia Conference of the United Churches of Christ, Mr. Horton was appointed to the charge at Gypsum, B.C.
After a brief pastorate there, he took a post-graduate course in theology at New College, Edinburgh, followed by study at Mansfield College, Oxford. On his return to Canada a year ago he was appointed to Burns Lake, from which he comes to his work in Victoria. Mr. Horton was married a few weeks ago to Miss McIntosh, of Vancouver.

Obituary

KNOWLES—The funeral of Mrs.
Myrtle Alice Thelma Knowles was held yesterday afternoon. Relatives and a large gathering of friends attended the service, which was conducted by Rev. N. E. Smith. The many beautiful floral wreaths and sprays sent betokened the high esteem in which Mrs. Knowles was held. The hymns sung were "On the Resurrection Morning" and "There is No Death in Heaven." The pallbearers were A. Botten, W. Botten, R.
Botten and H. Botten. Interment took place in Colwood Burial Park.

WALLER—The funeral of Ernest Fetherston Waller will be held in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel tomorrow at 2 p.m. Rev. Dr. W. G.
Wilson officiating. Interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

YEARWOOD—Rev. S. Ryall officiated at the private funeral service for Charles Edward Yearwood yesterday afternoon. The Twenty-Third Psalm was read. The casket and hearse were banked with beautiful floral offerings. The following were the pallbearers: Brigadier J. G. Austin, Major Cuthbert Holmes, Stewart Clark, R. Grant and G. H. Walton. The remains were forwarded to Vancouver for cremation.

BASS—Many sorrowing friends and relatives were present at the funeral of Albert Milton Bass held yesterday afternoon. Rev. John Robson conducting the service. An abundance of beautiful floral tributes was received. The following were pallbearers: J. E. Fuller, G.
W. Bridgwood, James White, C. S.
Wilson, S. Rogers and W. S. Outhwaite. The remains were laid at rest in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

RHODES—Private funeral services for Major Bernard Francis Rhodes, who died on Wednesday, will be conducted at the family residence, Barkock Hill, Metchoin, today at 4 p.m. Rev. H. M. Bolton officiating. Interment will be made in St. Mary's Cemetery, Metchoin.
It is requested no flowers be sent.
Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co., Ltd.

Vancouver Island's Alpine Scenery

Clouds, snow, mountains and tree line combine to make this symphony of beauty, which D. Powell, of Duncan, caught with his camera and submitted to The Daily Colonist May Snapshot Contest. It received honorable mention. The picture was taken at the source of Cottonwood Creek, which runs into Cowichan Lake. The photograph was taken at an elevation of 4,000 feet.

P. B. Freeland Made Supervisor of Provincial Training Scheme

P. B. Freeland, technical adviser to the British Columbia Mines Department, will take charge of the mining camp training scheme, Hon.
G. S. Pearson announced yesterday.
Mr. Freeland, attached to the department for a long time as a resident mining engineer, and recently promoted, has been named supervisor for the purpose of administration of the plan under which 100 young men are to be placed in camps for elementary mining instruction.

With enrollment proceeding apace at employment and relief offices throughout the province, details of the scheme were rounded out this week by Mr. Pearson. The British Columbia Treasury is to buy any gold recovered in the camps, paying on certificates of value to be given by D. E. Whitaker, provincial analyst. Funds thus received will be divided evenly among the men in camp, exclusive of supervising officials.

WILL BE GRUBSTAKED—
After a period of training in one of the three initial camps, the young men enrolled under the plan will be at liberty to try grubstaking for themselves, and to this end will be grubstaked with food and equipment for periods up to thirty days.
Practical mining instruction will be given in the camps by provincial instructors to prepare the men for the work.

Preference in enrollment is being given to young men who wish to follow mining as a permanent calling. All will take out provisional free miners' certificates.

C.N.R. SHOULD SHOW PUBLIC INVESTMENTS

Pending Appeal in Legal Case Capital Structure
Must Remain

PRIME MINISTER
STATES POSITION

OTTAWA, June 20 (AP)—Opposition to any change in the capital structure of the Canadian National Railways while litigation was in progress before the Privy Council on behalf of the Grand Trunk shareholders was emphasized by Premier R. B.
Bennett in a statement in the House today. He also took the view the reports of the Canadian National should show always the investment the Canadian people had in the enterprise.

The appeal before the Privy Council probably be heard next month in London. The Prime Minister explained. Leave to appeal was granted last March.

The statement was the result of a question by Ross W. Gray (Liberal, Lambton West), following a hearing some time ago before the House railway committee. At that hearing C. P. Fullerton, president of the Canadian National trustees, had given evidence relating to a letter the Prime Minister had written objecting to cutting down the capitalization.

STATES POSITION
"It will be observed," the Prime Minister said today, "I raised no objection to writing down the capital stock as it appears in the public accounts of the company, as being the aggregate of the value of the stocks representing the Grand Trunk and the Canadian National, but that the investments made by the Dominion of Canada should be shown in the report, the investments only, and I still think that is desirable."

The Prime Minister outlined the steps taken by the junior security holders of the Grand Trunk in their fight against the action of the Dominion Government in acquiring the Grand Trunk preference and common stock. The acquisition was made in May, 1920, following proceedings of an arbitration board which held the stock to be without value.

The shareholders' case had been pending more or less actively since 1931, said Mr. Bennett.

PUBLIC INVESTMENT
"To disturb the capital stock as it now stands might in certain eventualities be a matter of some moment to the Dominion of Canada, who are the shareholders," said the Prime Minister, "and I desire on that ground to make it clear why I do not desire, until this litigation is disposed of, any disturbance in the capital structure. But in so far as the reduction of the capital stock, as such, is concerned, when the time comes, to the figure that represents the investment, I have nothing to say; but I do submit that most of us are anxious there should appear in the report of the Canadian National something that indicates what the investment of the Canadian people in the enterprise may be."

Replying to Mr. Gray, Mr. Bennett said he could give no assurance the House would be given an opportunity for a full discussion of the matter. He was simply replying to Mrs. M. Cowell Is Taken by Death At Advanced Age

Mrs. Margaret Cowell, aged eighty-six years, died yesterday at the Beachcroft Nursing Home. She had resided here for twenty-four years.

Born in Ramsey, Isle of Man, she came to Canada in 1901. Mrs.
Cowell was the widow of John R.
Cowell, first clerk of the Alberta Legislature. He died at office from 1906, the inception of the Legislature, until his death in Victoria eleven years ago.

Mrs. Cowell made her home in Red Deer for some time, but later moved to Armstrong and then to Victoria in 1910. The deceased had been in ill-health recently. She made her home at the October Mansions, Cook Street.

She is survived by three sons and five daughters, John R. Cowell, Toledo, Ohio; W. C. Cowell, Vancouver; James, in England; Mrs. M.
Pogge and Miss Muriel Cowell,
Victoria; Mrs. E. C. Cuthbert and Mrs. George Fowler, Armstrong, and Mrs. F. McComb, Montreal.

The funeral will be held from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow. Dean C. S.
Quinton will officiate. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

LUMBER STRIKE COMING TO END

Mills at Tacoma Preparing to Resume Work After Six Weeks' Idleness

TACOMA, June 20 (AP)—Smoke was pouring from stacks on Tacoma today tonight as mills were preparing to start saws and planers ripping and drossing lumber tomorrow after idleness of more than six weeks. Resumption of operation by two logging and mill companies in this district today without clashes of any kind gave strength to the expectations generally expressed tonight that the reopening of ten or twelve lumber, door and plywood plants tomorrow will be accomplished without serious trouble.

The Tacoma mills are reopening under the new wage schedule which gives a minimum of 50 cents an hour with a forty-hour week.

CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS WASTE

Short on real soap—skimpy suds make hard rubbing—harsh bleaching alkalies fade colors—soap scum hard to rinse—leaves clothes dingy-looking

CLOTHES SOON GO TO PIECES

PRICES ARE GOING UP! Clothes cost more this year. Can you afford to risk them in cheap soap-chips?

When you're tempted by an over-size box of cheap soap-chips, stop and think. Think of the lack of real soap. Think of the harsh bleaching alkalies. What will they do to your clothes?

Hard rubbing... worn clothes

Thin weak suds mean hard rubbing... hard on you and hard on clothes! Threads "pull" and wear thin. Strong bleaching alkalies fade the color. Free, fatty acids make soap bad-smelling—hard to rinse. Sediment "speckles" the material... settles in seams and hems.

Is it any wonder your clothes soon look gray, worn and old?
But do you actually save on soap? No! "Second helpings" are needed to keep up suds. They soon eat up the big cheap chips box.

Compare that wasted soap with good, rich Chipso. Chipso is soapier. Just a handful builds up rich, thick, lively, lasting suds.
They soak dirt loose in just fifteen minutes. You don't have to wear clothes thin with hard rubbing.

Yes—Chipso does your hard work for you. Yet Chipso is gentle—no harsh bleaching alkalies to fade the color or weaken material. Get Chipso at your store today. Use it every wash-day. Discover the truth of "clothes washed regularly with Chipso wear months longer."

SCRUB ALL DAY

MEND ALL NIGHT

What a mistake—to let cheap soap-chips make you do this!

IT'S CHEAPER TO BUY GOOD SOAP THAN NEW CLOTHES

BILLS...BILLS!
TOWELS...SHEETS...APRONS.
DID WE NEED ALL THESE?

BLAME CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS FOR THIS FAMILY QUAR-REL—They're to blame for the ruined clothes that it costs good money to replace! Let's hope this wife will soon learn that good safe Chipso protects materials. It makes all your clothes wear longer.

CHIPSO is safe... makes all your clothes wear longer

"MORE SOAP IN CHIPSO—MORE WEAR IN OUR CLOTHES"

say women everywhere

"I get more suds out of Chipso," says Mrs. C. L. Benkert, "and they don't die down to suds like cheap chips do.
It's so easy, with Chipso, to get clothes clean. I don't even use a washboard.
Dirt comes out without hard rubbing.
My white clothes are white as snow!
Yet I never have trouble with things fading now."

Clothes look brand new

"All our clothes look brand new for a long time," says Mrs. J. L. Gedney, another pleased Chipso user.
"Sweaters do not shrink—they're soft and fleecy as new. The whole washing method is safer with Chipso.
No prolonged soaking to make colors run—no rubbing to twist clothes out of shape. Chipso takes the dirt—and takes it safely."

Quick for dishes—mild on hands

"It's economical to wash dishes with Chipso—a little of this soap goes so far in suds," says Mrs. T. B. Curry.
"The suds come up instantly and stay up. They rinse easily—leave no odor.
And they're so mild on your hands that you know there's nothing harsh in Chipso."

Chipso's richer suds loosen dirt quickly—save hard rubbing

Hon. W. D. Filer (Liberal, North

Indian Provincial Governor in City

En route to retire in England after thirty-five years' service in the Indian Civil Service, J. T. Whitty is registered at the Empress Hotel and will sail aboard S.S. Empress of Britain from Quebec on June 29.
He was successively district commissioner, member of the executive council and Governor of Bihar and Orissa, India, during his long stay among the natives.
Mr. Whitty asserted that the recently-passed India Bill, providing that government of the provinces would be largely carried on by an lected ministry, was a big step forward in the direction of self-government for India. The governor of a province, however, would still hold extensive emergency pow-arms imports, and had not abolished slavery.

CALLS ON LEAGUE

GENEVA, June 20 (AP)—Ethiopia, in another protest to the League of Nations, today charged Italy with preparing to make war against her. Invoking article of the League Covenant pledging members to respect the territorial integrity of other members, Emperor Haile Selassie's communication asserted aggression by Italy against "the independence and integrity of Ethiopia seems imminent."

"The Italian Government has not ceased and does not cease," it continued, "to send to East Africa troops and munitions of war in large quantities, accompanying this with inflammatory arrangements and speeches full of threats to Ethiopia's independence and integrity."

A neutral commission should be sent to the Ethiopian frontier, it was suggested, to examine the true state of affairs and, report to Geneva.

FEAR FUTURE OF VANCOUVER

associated enterprises, and Mr. Miller, were the two witnesses examined today. Both were opposed to creation of the proposed board with the powers the bill confers on it.

Fears for the future of Vancouver as one of the world's most important grain shipping ports, were expressed by Mr. McKee, if the bill as now drafted became law. Export business from Vancouver to Europe had been built up on the practice of shipping unadorned wheat in the expectation of selling before it reached port, which was usually accomplished.

If there was but one sales agency in Canada, he argued, the European buyers would order only when in immediate need and then they would require shipment by the shortest and fastest route—that is, by way of Atlantic ports.

Destruction of the marketing machinery built up through the years was seen in the proposed measure by Mr. Miller, who declared the grain exchange was definitely against the bill and believed producers generally would oppose it.

"Just put that back where you took it from!" as the young lady said to the daring young man who had stolen a kiss.

CLUB NAMES 1935 BOARD

Herbert Anson Re-elected President of Canadian Club at Annual Meeting

Herbert Anson, M.P.P. and ex-Mayor of the City of Victoria, was re-elected president of the Canadian Club at the adjourned annual meeting held last night in the Princess Louise dining-room of the Empress Hotel.

Other officers are: Honorary president, Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor; first vice-president, Colonel H. T. Goodland; second vice-president, James W. Hudson; literary secretary, F. M. McGregor; secretary, Frank J. Sehl; treasurer, P. B. Fowler, and auditor, George McCandless.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Members of the new executive committee were elected as follows: W. T. Straub, John Cochrane, Kenneth Ferguson, Charles H. French, T. W. S. Parsons, J. D. H. Benson, Colonel Lennox Irving and F. J. D. Pemberton.

Reports were received from the treasurer, chairman of the executive committee and secretary.

In his report, Mr. Anson referred to the splendid co-operation extended to him during the year by the officers and members of the executive.

PRESIDENT'S COMMENT

President Anson said he did not consider that the Canadian Club had altogether filled the place it should in the Capital City of the province. It is as loyal a club to Canadian institutions which are the very foundation of the ideals of the Canadian Club, there should be a much stronger support and appeal than we have secured from our citizens.

"I cannot close without saying what a tower of strength our genial secretary, Frank J. Sehl, is to the club. Always smiling—willing night and day to do anything that is required, it would be hard for the club to function without him," President Anson asserted.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE

In presenting the report of the executive committee, Secretary Sehl said that nine luncheons and dinners were held during the past year and the following guests were entertained: E. J. Tarr, T. W. L. McDermott, Very Rev. Ronald G. MacIntyre, Hon. H. H. Stevenson, Lord Tomlin of Ash, Captain L. Roger Lumley, Dr. W. A. Riddell, R. Finnie and Dr. J. S. Plasket.

Invitations were also issued to the following prominent figures, but acceptance was not possible for various reasons: Mr. Justice Murphy, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Commander Stephen King-Hall, R.N., Commander L. C. Bernatchi, Senator Arthur Meighen, E. W. Beatty, K.C., Captain H. G. Scott, Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, Hon. I. M. Tokugawa, Viscount Allenby, Admiral Roger Keyes, Admiral Tyrwhitt, H.R.H. the Duke of York, Hon. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Hon. Forgan Smith and Sir Ronald Storr.

Twelve new members were received into the club during the past year.

LOSS BY DEATH

The Canadian Club lost by death the following members since the last annual meeting: J. L. Beckwith, W. Ellis Brown, J. M. Campbell, Robert D. Dinsdale, Colonel B. deMossin, W. W. Duncan, Charles Hartley, John Jardine, John R. Johnson, John McAdam, Dr. G. H. Ramsay, T. H. Slater, A. Sutcliffe, D'Arcy Tate, K.C., J. T. Taylor, J. Keith Wilson and George W. Wynne.

Through lack of funds, the presentation of prizes in the schools for Canadian history was not carried out during the past year.

The thanks of the executive were tendered to The Colonist and The Times newspapers for their ready willingness to bring to the notice of the members forthcoming functions, and also for the full reports of the meetings; to the Empress Hotel, management for excellent service and co-operation; to the manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the use of the board room of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for committee meetings; to John Cochrane for efficient handling of sale lunch tickets, and to George McCandless for his services as auditor of the accounts.

A report was adopted from W. T. Straub, secretary of the regional council of the Canadian Club, which mentioned the formation of two new clubs in British Columbia, one at Nelson and the other at Rossland.

An honorary membership was conferred on Dr. J. S. Plasket, former director of the Dominion Observatory here, on motion of the members. Dr. Plasket and Peter McLean are the only two honorary members of the club.

Canadian Club's Officers

HERBERT ANSON, M.P.P. President of the Canadian Club at Annual Meeting

Mr. Anson was elected president of the Victoria Canadian Club for his second term, at the annual general meeting of the club held at the Empress Hotel last night. Mr. Sehl was re-elected for the thirtieth time as secretary. The club was organized in 1906, and Mr. Sehl became secretary on retirement of Frank I. Clark, one of the originators of the club here.

He has recently been given charge of the printing and sale of the daily programmes for the fair.

Struck Off List—In the city police court yesterday, disposition was made of the charge that W. A. Laming was retaining documents which rightfully belonged to T. J. H. van Ouden.

Bad Circulation of the Blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are fatty, the bowel walls weak—the parts lifeless. To end Piles an internal medicine should be used to stimulate the circulation and help to heal the affected parts.

Dr. Leonard was one of the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for large numbers of patients with a fine record of success and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID tablets from their own druggist, with money-back if not joyfully satisfied with the help one bottle gives.

So isn't it wise when other ways fail to go to MacFarlane and Vancouver to get HEM-ROID tablets? A matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID tablets must show you the safe, clean way to get rid of your Pile misery or money-back.

CAFE NINE IN FINE VICTORY OVER BRUINS

Chalk Up 9-5 Victory in Fast Softball Fixture at Enclosure

Timely clouting by Raymond Casey, brilliant young infielder, and a smart performance on the mound by Tommy Johnson, seventeen-year-old twirler, brought the Poodle Dog Cafe softballers through to a 9-5 victory over Painter's Bruins, yesterday evening, in a snappy exhibition at the Royal Athletic Park.

Given their first opportunity of the season of playing in the enclosure, the youngsters turned in a good performance and sent one of the largest crowds of the season away in a happy mood. The win enabled the Cafe squad to climb into undisputed occupation of the top berth in the "B" Section race.

The Cafemid did most of their run-scoring in the innings, the fourth, when they scored four runs, and the sixth, when they pushed across three more. Both clubs fielded in fine style, while the outfielders pulled off a number of sparkling catches.

"Porky" Andrews, of the losers, crashed out a homer in the last frame with one man on. Score by innings:

Painter's Bruins 110 000 102-5
Poodle Dog Cafe 011 403 009-9

Batteries—Simpson and Berry; Johnson and Harris.

NAVY WINS

Playing on their own diamond at Admirals Road, Navy nosed out the Bapcos, 11-10, in a keenly-fought fixture, while at Central Park, Kresge's defeated the Eagles, 13-7.

Spencer's continued to set a fast pace in the "C" section by winning their eighth straight game at the expense of the Reveliers, when they defeated them by a 17-6 score. Driving over two runs in the last inning, Hudson's Bay eked out a 14-13 win over the Hustlers. Hill's Corner defeated the Young Liberals.

TONIGHT'S GAMES
Fixtures scheduled this evening in Canadian Scottish vs. 17th Fortress; "C" Section, No. 2

Hollywood Club vs. Maple Leafs; Upper Central; R. E. McClure; Cooperage vs. Esquimalt Meat Market, Victoria West; P. Marcott; Civil Service Club vs. R. & T. Workers, Savory Club; E. Short.

"D" Section
Canadian Scottish vs. 17th Fortress; Work Point Barracks; Bayliss; Duroids vs. Native Sons of B.C.; Spencer's Park; H. Gent, C.C.F. vs. Gyros, Memorial Park; T. Nute.WOMEN'S FIXTURE
Kresge's Cardinals and Live Wires, a balanced women's softball nine, will clash at Central Park, lower diamond, in a postponed fixture that promises to be one of the best fair sex exhibitions of the season. Marshall will call the balls and strikes.

All fixtures will commence at 6:20 o'clock.

STANDING UNCHANGED
With the leading clubs coming through with victories over the teams below them in the league standing, the permanent chase in the "A" Section of the Lower Island Softball Association remained unchanged today.

Brundson's Boys, docked in top place with the Silent Glows, ran their winning streak to four straight when they defeated the New Method Laundry, 9-3, in a keenly-fought fixture played at Work Point Barracks.

Getting to the offerings of Eric Moir, Civic Staff's star moundman, Silent Glows slugged their way to a 16-6 victory at Victoria West Park. The burnermen were leading 15-0 until the seventh frame.

FIFTH STRAIGHT
With Art Carr twirling his fifth straight win, Bert Waude's defeated the Army, 7-3, at Bullen Park. The soldiers found Carr's offerings troublesome and except for a lone run in the first frame and a pair in the last inning, they found it impossible to get into the scoring column.

One big inning, the second, when they sent five runners the distance, brought victory to the burnermen, by scores by innings:

Army vs. 100 000 002-3
Bert Waude's 051 000 007-7

Committed for Trial—In the preliminary hearing in the charge against Lorne E. Butt of having obtained from Charles Jenkins $300 by false pretences, was concluded and the accused was committed for trial by Magistrate J. E. The allegation was that the money was obtained for the purpose of getting machinery for the Sooke Harbor Lumber Company mill. The informant, Mr. Jenkins, was given a position in the mill when it was got under way.

May Coal Output—Vancouver Island coal production for May was increased by approximately 20 per cent over corresponding figures of a year ago, according to provincial reports yesterday. Island production was 49,287 tons for the month, compared with 40,994 tons in May, 1934. British Columbia coal output as a whole during May amounted to 92,887 tons, a decrease from 102,657 tons mined in a like period last year. Coke at Skech amounted to 1,112 tons. Shipments at Corbin collieries accounted for 23,234 tons of the decrease shown in the East Kootenay district.

The best justification of that policy, the Dominion's Secretary asserted, was to be seen in the fact that whatever might be said about the position of the rest of the world, without one single exception every Dominion that was a party to the Ottawa agreements could at present show a surplus budget and a certain tendency towards prosperity.

Each Dominion under the Westminster statute had absolute freedom and liberty to determine its own destiny, he asserted. The question of Imperial defense had been mentioned by Prime Minister to London, were held during the Jubilee celebration which brought the Dominions' Prime Minister to London. Without exception, he said, they had declared:

"We should be wanting in our duty to our people and our obvious Imperial obligation if we had not taken steps to put right our Imperial defense."

"Where did you go last night?" "I went to a sleight-of-hand performance. I offered my hand to Doris and she laughed it."

MAN INJURED IN BOAT EXPLOSION
Gasoline Blast in Engine-Room of Boat at Vancouver—Japanese Here
VANCOUVER, June 20 (AP)—Hans Erickson, employee of the Queen Charlotte Fisheries, was in hospital tonight suffering possible fatal burns received when an explosion occurred aboard a gasboat loading gasoline at a fuel float in Coal Harbour.

K. Tamushi, another employee of the fisheries company with whom Erickson had taken the company boat to the float, rushed into the flaming engine-room and pulled Erickson clear of the flames when the explosion occurred. Tamushi was painfully but not seriously burned about the hands and face. Erickson was believed to have hit a match in the engine-room which ignited the gas fumes.

Yanks Continue to Stretch Lead Over Chicago White Sox

Another Victory Over Tigers Puts New Yorkers Firmly Entrenched in First Position—Sox Break Even—Giants Beat Pirates—Dizzy Dean Triumphs

AMERICAN LEAGUE
DETROIT, June 20 (AP).—The New York Yankees settled themselves a little more firmly in first place in the American League today when they trounced the Detroit Tigers for the third straight time, winning 5 to 2 behind the five-hit hurling of Johnny Allen.

The Yankee victory, their sixth in a row, was marred, however, by an injury to Bill Dickey, their first-string catcher. The veteran receiver was hit on the back of the head by one of Joe Sullivan's fast balls in the first inning. He was carried from the field and later taken to a local hospital, where an examination disclosed that he had received nothing more serious than a severe shaking up and a slight concussion.

Rally Wins Game
CLEVELAND, June 20 (AP).—A home run by Ralph Winegarner, pinch hitting for Mel Harder in the eighth inning today, started the Cleveland Indians on a three-run rally which enabled them to defeat the Washington Senators, 8 to 6. Winegarner drove the first hit offered by Earl Whitehill into the center field bleachers. Cliff Bolton also got a homer in the eighth off Harder.

Washington: R. H. E.
Washington 6 14 1
Cleveland 8 14 1
Batteries—Whitehill and Bolton; Harder and Phillips.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
BROOKLYN, June 20 (AP).—Two big innings broke up a pair of pitching duels today as Brooklyn and Cincinnati broke even in a doubleheader, the Reds winning the first, 6 to 1, in eleven innings and the Dodgers the nightcap, 7 to 1.

For nine innings of the first, Tony Freitas and Tom Zachary pitched scoreless ball, the former holding the Dodgers to two hits. In the tenth, both teams scored a run as Paul Derringer relieved Freitas after the latter had passed a man, but in the eleventh the Reds broke out with five runs, with Johnny Babich the victim.

The second game went along much the same way, with Kampouris' home run and two hits by the Dodgers in the third sending the contest into the eighth with the score tied at one-all, and Johnson and Dazy Vance, who had relieved Mungo in the fifth, looked in a mound duel. Then the Dodgers cut loose, scoring six times.

First game: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 6 14 2
Brooklyn 1 3 2
Batteries—Freitas, Derringer and Lombardi; Zachary, Leonard, Babich and Lopez.

Second game: R. H. E.
Cincinnati 1 6 2
Brooklyn 7 10 0
Batteries—Johnson, Herrmann and Erickson; Mungo, Vance and Lopez.

Homers Decide Outcome
NEW YORK, June 20 (AP).—With Manager Bill Terry and Joe Moore hitting homers to account for half of the runs, the New York Giants turned back the challenge of the Pittsburgh Pirates today as they defeated the Bucs, 6 to 2, to increase their lead to six and one-half games.

Pittsburgh: R. H. E.
New York 6 9 0
Pittsburgh 2 9 0
Batteries—Bush and Grace; Padden; Parmelee, Al Smith and Mancuso.

Dizzy Dean Again
PHILADELPHIA, June 20 (AP).—A combination of splendid pitching by Dizzy Dean and a home run by Jimmy Collins with one man on base in the fifth inning gave the Cardinals a 3-1 victory over the Phillies in the first game of the series today.

It was Dizzy's tenth triumph of the year against five defeats. Camilli hit a home run in the second for the Phillies' only tally. About 8,000 fans saw the contest.

St. Louis: R. H. E.
St. Louis 3 15 1
Philadelphia 1 3 0
Batteries—J. Dean and Delancey; Davis and Wilson.

Fred Perry Will Visit Canada on Short Tour Soon

OTTAWA, June 20 (AP).—Fred Perry, world's top ranking tennis player, will be among the Britishers visiting Canada on a short tour prior to the United States championships at Forest Hills, Philadelphia, D. Lyons, president of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, said tonight.

The English Tennis Association announced in London today it would allow men nominated for the United States tournament to visit the Dominion. Mr. Lyons did not know who the other players would be.

While in the Dominion from August 8 until August 15, the English players will visit Montreal, Toronto and possibly Ottawa.

SOCCER CUPS PRESENTED AT ANNUAL EVENT

Wednesday Football League Clubs Receive Trophies at Monster Banquet

Another chapter was written in the history of the Victoria and District Wednesday Football League yesterday evening at Spencer's restaurant when players, team managers, executive officers and guests, gathered at the annual banquet and presentation of trophies to the winning clubs during the 1934-35 season. Approximately 120 persons attended the function.

W. A. Pendray, son of J. C. Pendray, donor of the Pendray Cup, symbolic of the mid-week soccer league championship, presented the coveted trophy bearing his name to Dal Munro, captain of Spencer's eleven, and winners of the championship for two successive seasons.

To the individual members of the team, Mr. Pendray presented miniature cups. He complimented the team on its showing and wished it further success in the future.

Reginald Hayward, Jr., presented the Reginald Hayward Cup to Jim Oakman, captain of the Hudson's Bay team, and individual trophies to the players. He conveyed the best wishes of his father, donor of the trophy, and concluded by wishing the players still more success next season.

Archie "Scotty" McKay, donor of the McKay Shield, presented the McKay Shield to Len Fieldhouse of the Macabees Club, chairman of the city parks board.

Pitcher Bowls a Clever Strike

The idiom of cricket still pervades the game of baseball after its adoption in a limited way in England. British sport fans welcome the color injected into the American game, but cannot forego their efforts to link it up with their own favorite Summer sport. As far as equipment goes, everything was fine when Streamham was matched with Putney (above), but here is an English caption writer's description of the action displayed. "The Putney pitcher bowled a clever fast one across the square, which the Streamham player missed completely for a strike. The batskeeper and referee are shown."

Everett Ball Squad to Battle Sons of Canada

Smart American Ball Nine to Perform in Twin Bill at Royal Athletic Park—Games Will Be Played at 2:30 and 6 o'Clock

RUSS Christianson, hard-hitting Everett infielder, who lifted the ball over the center field fence at the Royal Athletic Park last night, will return to the enclosure tomorrow with the Everett team when they battle the Victoria Sons of Canada in another twin-bill exhibition baseball series.

The afternoon game is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock and the evening fixture for 6 o'clock.

Members of the Inter-City League, the Everett nine is reported to be trying plenty of good ball material, including "Cubby" Bill Hudgins, Coast Guard, all-star Pacific Coast team, who will be at the initial cushion. Bel Colvin will work on the keystone bag, with Lou Moody at the hot corner. Christianson, the boy who hits the ball hard, will play at short.

The visitors will have Wesley "Speedball" Tuft and Jimmy Francisco for the heavy work on the mound. Erv Hurley and Frank Smith complete the visitors' line-up. Lloyd Peterson, veteran player, is manager of the club.

BEAT PORT ANGELES
After taking the measure of Port Angeles last week when they won both ends of the double card, the Sons of Canada will be out to put a halt to Everett's winning streak. The locals won a free-scoring afternoon game, 14-6, and then came back and noosed out the visitors, 5-4, in the nightcap. The evening fixture was one of the best games seen here for a long time and was featured by two sparkling catches by Ken Fleming and Steve Dunt in the ninth inning when the Port Angeles nine made a great bid to even the score.

LARGE ENTRY ASSURED FOR TENNIS MEET

Victoria Indians Will Open Season Sunday Afternoon

STOCKERS, second place in the Victoria and District Commercial Baseball League pennant drive, will journey to the Songhees reserve Sunday afternoon to do battle with the Victoria Indians in the opening fixture at the reservation. The game will get under way at 2:30 o'clock. A number of Victoria clubs made visits to the Songhees Reserve last season and met the Indians in a number of exhibition games which proved very popular. This season the Indians will have a stronger squad and hope to chalk up impressive wins in the Sunday games.

ALBIONS WILL PLAY NANAIMO

Up-Island-Cricket Eleven to Perform at Beacon Hill—Three Other Matches

With Victoria playing Cowichan at the Up-Island ground in the only league match carded, friendly fixtures will keep local cricketers busy tomorrow with three matches on the programme.

At Beacon Hill Park the Albions will be hosts to the visiting Nanaimo team in a friendly match, while at Mount Tolmie the Income will oppose the Five Cs in another match. The third friendly game will bring together Victoria and Grant's XI at Macdonald Park.

All matches are scheduled to commence at 2:15 o'clock. Some of tomorrow's teams follow: Victoria—H. Lethaby, captain; G. Austin, P. Austin, F. Jordan, H. S. Hurn, W. J. Moffatt, G. Sellers, F. Mitchell, T. Bosson, R. A. Willcox and A. J. Collett.

Nanaimo—H. A. Goward, captain; C. Jones, G. Wilkinson, J. F. Meredith, J. Barclay, W. Moore, G. Marshall, T. Peck, A. J. Darcus and P. Nation.

Will Not Resign
CLEVELAND, June 20 (AP).—Walter Johnson, manager of the Cleveland Indians, said today he does not intend to resign his post at the close of the present season.

His denial was prompted by published reports that he would be associated with the Philadelphia Phillies.

PROVINCIAL CHAMP REACHES SEMIS IN CANADIAN TOURNEY

Long-Hitting Vancouver Star Continues Bid for Dominion Crown—Faces Somerville Today—Black and Moore Beaten—United States Contenders Are Eliminated

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HAMILTON GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB, CANCASTER, Ont., June 20 (AP).—Canada's West and East will fight it out over the Ancaster course for the Canadian amateur golf championship that will return to the Dominion for the first time since 1932. Out of the two eighteen-hole rounds today, C. Ross "Sandy" Somerville, of the London Club, emerged still the favorite to win the crown laid aside by Albert "Sooty" Campbell of Seattle, who did not defend the title he won in 1933 and 1934. Last Canadian winner was Gordon Taylor, of Montreal, in 1932.

Western Canada sent two of its best into tomorrow's thirty-six-hole semi-final. They are Stan Leonard, sensational youngster from Vancouver, and Stew Vickers, of Calgary, whose supporters claim his real threat for the title. Carrying the East's hopes was Somerville, who is Gordon Taylor, Jr., of Toronto's York Downs Club, whose steady play has brought him to the championship who will battle it out in tomorrow's final matches.

HAS CLOSE CALL
Somerville, out for his fifth title, had a close call today when Fred Wright, seven times champion of Massachusetts, put up the most stubborn opposition and refused to be daunted by the impressive display of London's imperturbable Sandy, four times Dominion champion and winner of the United States amateur three years ago. Wright carried Sandy to the nineteenth hole before succumbing.

Curiously enough, it was a putt that sent the genial American down to defeat after his performance on the greens had brought applause from a large gallery. Wright's only weakness was on his tee shots and these came infrequently, but enough to put him in trouble. Sandy snuck an eight-footer on the extra hole and Wright just missed his six-foot attempt.

In the morning, Wright romped through eighteen holes, yielding a magic number that spelled a 5 and 4 defeat for Jack Rolston, of Dundas, Ont., who came from Chicago only two months ago. Somerville's methodical game was too much in the morning for Dick Moore, of Vancouver, and London's man of few words calmly carved out a 5 and 3 win.

Stan Leonard, "hot" man of the tournament, who fairly sizzled yesterday against the remarkable game of Joe Thompson, of Burlington, was still strong today. He, too, resulting out Dan Kennedy, from Winnipeg, 4 and 3, and took the measure of another Westerner, social Jim Mountfield, of Edmonton, by the same margin in the afternoon.

Gordie Taylor, outstripping Rod Phelan, of Rosedale, Toronto, four up in his first morning nine holes, slipped on the incoming nine but came through with a 2 and 1 win in the afternoon. He put on a great show in the final nine and eliminated Dick Lunn, a scratch man from the Chevy Chase Club, of Washington, D.C. 3 and 2.

BLACK ELIMINATED
Stew Vickers, whom many have overlooked, found a real job on his hands this morning after John Lewis, of Bradford, Ont., but stuck to his work and won at the twentieth hole. In the afternoon he took on Ken Black who has held the British Columbia open and amateur titles and went to the finals of the Canadian amateur against Campbell in 1934. One up at the turn, the Calgary boy held grimly to his lead and finished with a 2 and 1 decision.

When Stan Leonard trots out tomorrow against Campbell in the semi-final, Vickers played three perfect shots to within twelve feet of the hole. When Black's try for a birdie four just laid past the hole, Vickers sent his putt within inches of the cup and the match ended with the Californian winner two and one.

Juvenile Baseball
Two baseball leagues, one for boys fourteen years and under, and another for boys sixteen and under, will be operated by the Royal Juvenile Athletic Association this year. Clubs may secure their registration forms at the Royal Athletic Park, or at the next meeting of the league, which will be held in The Colonist boardroom on Wednesday, June 26, at 8 o'clock, when entries will close.

FRANCE'S WONDER HORSE IS BADLY OUTCLASSED

Brantome Finishes Fifth in Gold Cup Classic in England

Famous French Horse Suffers First Defeat in Running of Annual Event at Ascot—Tiberius Captures Race by Eight Lengths—Track Is Heavy

ASCOT, England, June 20 (AP)—Ascot usually is described as the graveyard of favorites, and it lived up to its reputation today in the complete eclipse of Brantome, French wonder horse, in the running of the Gold Cup. Previously unbeaten, Brantome finished fifth among the six horses which ran the two and one-half mile course. Brantome was third entering the straightaway, but could not maintain the pace.

Sir Abe Bailey's colt, Tiberius, at 100 to 30, won the race in 4:35.1-5. Sir Abe also won the Gold Cup in 1927 with Foxlaw, Tiberius' sire. Eight lengths back of the winner came Alcazar, owned by William Woodward, of the United States, and another two lengths back was M. M. Boussa's Denver.

Defeat of his entry was a terrific blow to the French owner of Brantome, Baron Edouard de Rothschild. Asked for an explanation, he said nothing. He walked about dejectedly and silently. Superstitious racegoers noticed Brantome was number thirteen on the card.

Jockey Bouillon said the heavy going defeated Brantome. It was another wet day.

WEATHER INTERFERES

For the second time, rain prevented the royal procession in carriages from Windsor Castle. The Queen, the Prince of Wales and others of the royal family drove in closed cars to the course.

Windsor Lad, at odds of 4 to 9, won the Bous Memorial Stakes, although hard pressed by Pampas Grass, which finished half a length back. Pampas Grass was quoted at 7 to 2, and Halkan, the third finisher, at 5 to 1.

Easton easily landed the Ribblesdale Stakes at odds of 1 to 4, while Bellacose, at 7 to 4, took the Galloway Stakes. Dorothy Paget's Bessie, at 4 to 1, captured the new stakes for two-year-olds.

Two horses which failed to place in the Derby figures in the Waterford stakes—Sea Beguise, quoted at 6 to 4, won the event, and Fairbairn, at 9 to 2, was second.

GINSBERG IS SIGNED FOR MAIN EVENT

Rugged Chicago Grappler to Meet Californian Tomorrow Evening

"Baron" Benny Ginsberg, rugged Chicago grappler, who uses his elbow butts with deadly accuracy, will return to the local battle front tomorrow to meet "Casey" Kanzenjian, San Francisco squirmier. In the eight ten-minute round main event of the weekly squirm card at the Tillicum gymnasium. Two other leading heavyweights will appear in the semi-windup, with a local preliminary opening the show at 8:45 o'clock.

Kanzenjian is a former college athlete, who has made good in the professional mat game in a big way. Rugged and capable of handing out plenty of punishing tactics not included in the best of wrestling company, the young Californian will meet the "Baron" on an even footing. Fast, elusive and clever, Kanzenjian will be favored in some circles to defeat the Chicago Jewish grappler, who has demonstrated in previous appearances here that wrestling to him is no pink tea party.

Ginsberg showed here last week against Jasjit Singh, slow-working Hindu from Punjab, India, and gave the Far Easterner plenty of punishment, only to lose the bout in the sixth frame on a foul. The "Baron" is built like a circus strongman, with big broad shoulders and a well-developed chest. He has the strength of a lion and has an assortment of elbow butts that will drop the most rugged of matmen. His appearance against Kanzenjian, another expert of rough tactics, should be interesting.

All-American Lacrosse Team Off for New Westminster for Series

VANCOUVER, June 20 (AP)—An all-American lacrosse team, selected from Eastern United States universities, left New York today and will arrive here Monday to meet an all-star British Columbia team in a best-of-five series for the international championship and the Lally Trophy.

The invaders will travel direct to Vancouver, but will play exhibition games in Canadian cities on their return journey East. The itinerary for these exhibitions has not been arranged, but President Dan McKenzie, of the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association, said games would probably be staged at Calgary, Winnipeg and either Toronto or Montreal and possibly at Trail and Nelson in British Columbia.

The series here and at New Westminster will open June 26 with

GOOD BOUTS AT MOUNT STEPHEN

Mixed Programme Billed Tonight at Popular Outdoor Arena

George Lowe, the Chinese flash, and Wally Edwards, Cedar Hill wildcat, popular Victoria wrestlers, who grappled to a draw in their last appearance, will return on the top spot of the Mount Stephen Athletic Club's mixed card this evening, at their popular outdoor arena on Mount Stephen Avenue.

They are billed to go six five-minute rounds in what should be a rattling good bout.

Fred Loeffer and Rudy Loeffer, clever Y.M.C.A. matmen, will show in the five-round semi-windup. Both youngsters are well versed in the finer arts of the wrestling game and should put on a good match.

Jack Lacey and "Bud" Kirehin will open the mat programme when they clash in a four four-minute-round encounter.

Four good boxing bouts will round out the attractive programme. The first mix will start at 8 o'clock.

WOOD TAKES GOLF CROWN

Defeating George Quincey in the final, 2 and 1, J. M. "Jim" Wood captured the "B" class championship of the Royal Colwood Golf Club during the week after an interesting match from start to finish. In the semi-finals the measure titleholder took the measure of T. H. Leeming, 3 and 2, and Quincey advanced by winning from J. S. Gow, two up.

J. A. M. Knox took first-flight honors by his 2-and-1 decision over P. Land. In the semis, Land defeated Bert Waude, 3 and 2, and Knox went into the final with a default triumph over W. F. Masters. Dr. C. J. Coultas won the second-flight laurels from D. Sutherland.

Following the matches J. Graham Graham, president of the club, presented the championship trophies to the "A" and "B" class champions. Dave Randall was the "A" class winner, defeating H. G. MacKenzie in the final.

Local Fisherman Hooks Big Brown Trout Up-Island

A record brown trout was taken from the "rips" in the Cowichan River Wednesday afternoon by C. S. Allyn, local angler. Roger Monro, well-known Victoria fishing official, announced yesterday. The catch weighed slightly over two and a half pounds and is now on display in Roger Monro's fishing tackle store, 615 View Street. The usual weight of brown trout is between one and one and a half pounds, which made Allen's catch all the more interesting to Island fishermen.

Con Jones, the Vancouver lacrosse maniac, was in the city yesterday looking as though he was thriving on the troubles contingent upon the effort to hold together a twelve capable of inflicting the Minto Cup from the sturdy chaps of the Fraser River Valley.

A genuine surprise was handed in lacrosse fraternity last night, when Victoria West gave the North Ward twelve the worst fright that they have experienced this season. The match, which was one of the local league series, was won by the

FINANCE - COMMERCE - MARKETS

Early Selling Is Counteracted by Quiet Recovery

NEW YORK, June 20 (AP)—The stock market had to absorb considerable selling in the early hours today but a quiet recovery was under way before the close, which partially erased early losses in many issues.

President Roosevelt's wealth de-centralization plan through increased taxation made rather cheerless reading to some Wall Street eyes, and the market had to contend with the usual "corrective" reaction which follows a sustained uptick in the opinion of many market observers.

Despite the morning selling wave the turnover in the stock exchange was considerably smaller than in the previous session, dropping below the million-share mark at 994,020 shares. The Associated Press average of sixty stocks ended 3 1/2 points lower at 437.

Declining tendencies in the stock list, while fairly general, were better listed in some sections, notably the utilities, tobacco and many of the oils, while some of the weaker spots were found in the high-priced favorites of recent sessions such as American Can and Union Pacific, where losses ranged from 1 to 2 points.

The French franc rose moderately in the foreign exchange market to close 5-8 of a cent higher at 6.61 1/2 cents.

Selling in United States Government securities today had an unsettling effect on the bond market. Principal victim of the day was the New Haven issue of consolidated 4s of 1956.

Among the carriers and industrial stocks that slipped a fraction to a point or so were Baltimore & Ohio 5s at 102 1/4; International Paper 5s at 72.

Prices Irregular and Business Unsettled On Eastern Exchanges

MONTREAL, June 20 (AP)—Traders appeared restless on the Montreal Stock Exchange today, and security prices were irregular. Volume was about the same as yesterday.

Prominent among power issues to turn downward was Canadian Hydro Electric preferred, dropping 11-2 points below the previous closing price of 40 1/2.

In the metal group, Consolidated Mining & Smelting advanced 1-2 point, to 161 1/2, while Hollinger Mines was the higher at 18-60, nickel rose 1-4 at 273-8.

On the Curb International Petroleum was off 1-4 at 351-4. Imperial Oil dropped 1-2 at 203-8. British Columbia Packers rose 5 cents to 98 cents.

Among mines, Lakeshore eased 25 cents to 50-50. Peron Gold rose 2 cents to 82 cents, and Brazil advanced 3 cents to 58 cents.

Sales on the Stock Exchange totaled 110,118 shares with $12,100 in bonds. Sales on the Curb market were 67,230 shares.

A NEW TYPE AIRPLANE

THE WINNER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE CONTEST FOR A SAFE AND EASILY FLOWN AIRPLANE FOR PRIVATE OWNERS IS A LOW WINGED, PUSHER MONOPLANE.

IT HAS A 3-WHEELED LANDING GEAR AND ON THE GROUND IS STEERED BY THE FRONT WHEEL.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO NOSE IT OVER WHEN THE BRAKES ARE SEVERELY USED IN LANDING.

6-20 JESSE HARRISON MASON

SOME months ago the Bureau of Air Commerce of the Department of Commerce asked for bids on the design of an airplane which would be easy to fly and quite safe. Out of this competition came the winner, an unusual design of low-wing pusher monoplane carrying two passengers in its forward-placed cabin, side by side. This is a three-wheeled landing gear and the steering is done with the swiveling front wheel. The centre of weight is ahead of the rear wheels. This greatly assists in landings which are made in the same manner as with the conventional plane—that is, tail down as in a three-point landing. Contact with the ground is made on the two rear wheels in landing and since the weight is ahead of these wheels, the plane immediately noses over to a horizontal position on its third wheel. This immediately reduces the angle of attack of the wings to zero and hence the plane ceases to lift but stays on the ground without bouncing.

A VEXED QUESTION
He is indeed an optimist who believes that mankind will ever achieve that Utopian state when there will be no vexed questions to harass us—problems whose attempt at solution will surely take much of the joy out of living, even in a millenium.

Worry seems to be a fundamental trait. Apparently the good Lord, when He created man, decided that it was not good for us not to always have something on our mind. And so, ever after, we have had plenty to think about, vexed questions having beset us from time immemorial.

However, the earliest recorded use of the phrase in Heylin's work, "Ecclesia Vindicta," published in 1687.

Flower Beds Are Found Destroyed At Normal School

Officials of the Provincial Normal School have requested the Esanich police to endeavor to discover persons, presumably boys, responsible for acts of vandalism in the school grounds over an extended period. According to reports reaching the police, considerable damage has been done to flower beds and the growing shrubs over a wide area. Wednesday morning it was discovered that several flower beds had been ruined and that cedar saplings had been torn out by the roots. Footprints in the soil of some of the beds indicate the damage was done by boys, probably three or four. For some time the school grounds have suffered damage, which was repaired but the damage Wednesday was so extensive that the officials asked the police to assist them in putting a stop to the acts.

COUPLE GUESTS AT RECEPTION

Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Boothroyd Presented With Silver Service and Purse

Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Boothroyd were guests of honor at a presentation and reception held by the congregation of the First United Church in the Sunday School auditorium Wednesday night.

A beautiful silver tea service, suitably engraved, and a purse of money, were presented to the newly-wedded couple by Mrs. A. Chisholm, president of the Women's Missionary Society, on behalf of the church members.

Prior to the presentation Elton Jones, president of the Young People's Society, read an address in which the couple were congratulated and wished every success in their new venture, and in their new work to be undertaken at Barkerville, where Mr. Boothroyd will be the United Church minister.

EXPRESSIONS OF REGRET

Trustee W. T. Strathairn presided, and in a few remarks added his congratulations to those already expressed, while Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson, when called upon to say a few words, provided considerable mirth with his humorous remarks, in which were intermingled genuine expressions of regret that Mr. and Mrs. Boothroyd were leaving the city, and words of encouragement to help them along the way in the new work ahead of them.

A fine programme of entertainment was provided, the artists being Mrs. George Norris, Neil Perry and Harry Hay. After the programme of entertainment refreshments were served, and a two-tier wedding cake, presented to the couple, was cut by the bride and distributed among the 250 persons present.

Oak Bay Rose Society to Hold Rose Exhibition in Crystal Garden

Arrangements have been completed to make the eleventh annual rose show of the Oak Bay Rose Society, to be held in the Crystal Garden from 2 to 9 p.m. tomorrow, an outstanding success.

With a profusion of flowers assured by virtue of the large number of entries in the twenty-three different classes, this exhibition should be a beautiful spectacle to witness.

In addition to the exhibit of roses, colored photography will be shown, and this feature in itself should prove quite an attraction.

The show is being held under the patronage of Lady Barnard, Mrs. R. P. Butchart, Mrs. H. R. Beaven and Mrs. W. C. Nichol, whose gardens have done much to encourage others in horticultural pursuits.

CHAPTER XLII

Silver Heels stood in the taproom of Buckman's Tavern, eating bullets; a barefoot drummer boy watched the white hot crucible and baled out the glittering molten metal.

Near the window sat some Woburn Minute Men, cross-legged on the worn floor, rolling cartridges. From time to time the parson of Woburn, who had come to pray and shoot, took away the pile of empty powder-horns and brought back others to be emptied.

The tavern was dim and damp; through freshly-bored loopholes in the shutters sunlight fell, illuminating the dark interior.

In their shirts, bare-armed and bare of throat to the breastbone, a score of Lexington Minute Men stood along the line of loopholes, their long rifles thrust out.

Jack Mount and the Wessel-lay, curled up like giant cats, at the door, blinking peacefully out through the cracks into the early sunshine. I could hear their low-voiced conversation from where I stood at my post, close to Silver Heels.

"Redcoats, Cade, not redskins," corrected Mount.

"Butts—eh, Cade?" You remember how we drubbed them there in Pittsburg, belt and buckle and ramrod—eh, Cade?"

"That was long ago, friend."

"Call me Jack, Cade," urged Mount.

"I know," she said faintly. "A long, long war; separation, sadness. Will you wed me before I go to join Cressap's men?"

"Aye," she said.

"There is a parson below, Silver Heels."

Her face went scarlet.

"Let it be now," I whispered, with my arm around her.

She looked up into my eyes. I leaned over the landing rail and called out, "Send a man for the parson of Woburn."

Presently the good man came, in rusty black, shouldering a fowling-piece, his pockets bulging with a Bible and Book of Common Prayer.

"Is there sickness here—or wounds?" he asked anxiously, peering up the stairs.

"Heart-sickness, sir," I said. "We be dying for the heart's ease; you may bring us through your holy office."

At length he understood—Silver Heels striving to keep her sweet eyes lifted when he spoke to her, and I quiet and determined, asking that he lose no time, for no man knew how long we faw here in the tavern had to live. In the same breath I summoned a soldier from the south loophole in the garret, and asked him to witness for me, and he took off his hat and stood sheepishly twirling it, rifle in hand.

And so we were wedded, there in the garret, the pigeons coo-cooing overhead, the blue wasps buzzing up and down the window glass, and our hands joined before the aged parson of Woburn town. I had the plain gold ring I had bought in Albany for this purpose, nor dreamed to wed my sweetheart with it thus—and, oh, the sweetness in her lips and eyes when I drew it from the cord around my neck and placed it on her smooth finger at the word.

Little else I remember, save that the old parson kissed her and went away down the creaking stairs with his fowling-piece over his shoulder, leaving us standing mute together under the canopy of swinging herbs.

There was a little pile of, cotton cloth on the floor, presently Silver Heels sank down beside it and began to tear it into strips for bandages.

I looked from the window, seeing nothing.

Soon the Minute Man at the south loop spoke:

"A man riding this way—there—on the Concord Road."

Silver Heels on the floor worked steadily, ripping the snowy cotton.

"There is smoke yonder on the Concord Road," said the Minute man.

I roused and rubbed my eyes.

"Do you hear firing," he asked, "far away in the west?"

"Yes."

"Concord lies northwest."

The firing became audible in the room. Silver Heels raised her head with a grave glance at me. I went and knelt beside her.

"It is coming at last, little sweetheart," I said. "Will you go now? Foxcroft will take you across the fields to some safe farm."

"You know Sir William would not have endured to see me leave at such a time," she said.

"Yes, dear heart, but you cannot carry a rifle."

"But I can make bullets and bandages. I will not go."

"No." She bent her fair, childish head and the tears fell on the cloth in her lap.

"Look! Look at the redcoats!" called out the Minute Man at the attic window.

As I rose I heard plainly the long, round crashing of musket firing and the rattle of rifles followed like a hundred echoes.

"Look yonder he cried.

Suddenly the Concord Road was choked with scarlet-clad soldiers. Mapped out below us, the country stretched, and over it, like a blood-red monster now, wound the British column.

And now we could see feathery puffs of smoke from the roadside bushes, from distant hills, from thickets, from ploughed fields, from the long, undulating stone walls. Faster and faster came the musket volleys, but faster yet rang out the shots from our yeomanry, gathering thicker and thicker along the British route.

The old tavern was ringing with voices now—with commands and with calls. The young officer in charge shouted for silence and attention, and ordered us not to fire unless fired upon, as our position would be hopeless if cannon were brought against us.

"To your posts!" he roared then, drawing his sword and coming up the stairs two at a jump. He stopped short when he saw Silver Heels and glanced blankly at me, but there was no time now for her to take to flight, for as he stepped to the window beside me, pell-mell into the village green rushed the British light infantry, dusty, exhausted, coruscated with staggering groups bearing dead or wounded comrades.

Close on their heels, the pained Grenadiers. Soldier after soldier staggered and fell from the ranks, Terrible was the vengeance that followed the British flight south across the land, and scourged its dwindling ranks, which withered under the searching fire from every tuft of bushes.

Mount. "You know me now, don't you, Cade?"

"Aye, but I forgot much. Do you know how I came here?"

"From Johnston, Cade—from Johnston, lad."

"I cannot remember Johnston," Presently the Wessel peered around at Silver Heels.

"Who is that young lady?" he asked mildly.

Silver Heels heard and smiled at the old man. The faintest quiver curved her mouth; there was a shadow of pain in her eyes.

The fire from the crucible untied her cheeks; she raised both bare arms to push back her clustering hair. Hazel grey, her brave eyes met mine across the witch-vapor curling from the melting-pot.

She flushed to the temples and looked at me.

"Dear, dear Michael," she whispered, "truly you were ever the dearest and noblest and best of all."

"Unfit to kiss thy shoem's latchet, my sweet."

"Yet hast untied the latchets of my heart."

A stillness fell on the old tavern. Then a voice called down from the pigeon-loft above, "Is there a woman below to sew bandages?"

"Truly there is, sir," called back Silver Heels.

She started toward the stairway, then turned to look at me.

"My post is wherever you are," I said, stepping to her side.

As we went up the stairs I stopped to kiss her little hand.

"There is a long war before us ere we find a home," I said.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Whitefoot's Careless Jump

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse once more was happy. When he found his snug little nest and his store of food under the old box in the darkest corner of Farmer Brown's sugar house he knew that Farmer Brown's Boy must have placed it there. It was better than the old place under the woodpile. It was the best place for a home Whitefoot ever had. It didn't take him long to change his mind about leaving the little sugar house. Somehow he seemed to know right down inside that his home would not again be disturbed.

So he proceeded to rearrange his nest and to put all his supplies of food in one corner of the old box. When everything was arranged to suit him he ventured out, for now he no longer feared Farmer Brown's Boy. He wanted to see all that was going on. He liked to jump up on the bench where Farmer Brown's Boy's coat hung and explore the pockets of it. Once he stole Farmer Brown's Boy's handkerchief. He wanted to add to the material his nest was made of. Farmer Brown's Boy discovered it just as it was disappearing, and how he laughed as he pulled it away.

So what with eating and sleeping and playing about, secure in the feeling that no harm could come to him, Whitefoot was happier than ever before in his little life. He knew that Farmer Brown's Boy and Farmer Brown and Bower the Hound were his friends. He knew, too, that as long as they were about none of his enemies would dare come near. That being so, of course there was nothing to be afraid of. No harm could possibly come to him. At least that is what Whitefoot thought.

But you know enemies are not the only dangers to watch out for; accidents will happen. When they do happen it is very likely to be when the possibility of them is farthest from your thoughts. Almost always they are due to heedlessness or carelessness. It was heedlessness that got Whitefoot into one of the worst mishaps of his whole life.

Whitefoot had been running and jumping all around the inside of the little sugar house. He loves to run and jump, and he had been having just the best time ever. Finally Whitefoot ran along the old bench and jumped from the end of it for a box standing on end on which Farmer Brown's Boy sometimes sat. It wasn't a very long jump, but somehow Whitefoot misjudged it. He was heedless and he didn't jump quite far enough. Right beside that box was a tin pail, half filled with sap. Instead of landing on the box, Whitefoot landed with a splash in that pail of sap.

LONDON (P.)—Phil Scott, the "fainting Phil" of the heavyweights, opened a beauty parlor and hasn't got into the news since. But his brother, S. W. Sumling, is a good enough billiard player to rate mention frequently. He is champion of the Queen's Club. Scott's family name is Sumling.

What Today Means

"CANCER"

If June 21 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 to 11 a.m., from 1 to 3 p.m., and from 7 to 9 p.m. The danger periods are from 7 to 9 a.m., from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 9 to 11 p.m.

If June 21 is your birthday, you were born under the Zodiacal sign Cancer. You probably prefer to listen, rather than talk, and dislike boisterousness, and also ostentatious display. Life will never be dull for you, if there is any truth about variety being its spice. You are likely to be a firm believer in the old saying, "Discretion is the better part of valor." Your determination and energy will help you to realize your dreams. You may have almost uncanny powers in anticipating the thoughts as well as needs of those with whom you are in close contact. You are likely to come into possession of property or money through a will or as a gift. You most likely have a vivid imagination. Your birthstones are the ruby and emerald. Your flowers are the iris, lily and white rose. Married and engaged couples, and sweethearts, will display good judgment if they refrain from being overly critical this day.

If a woman, and June 21 is your birthday, you will advance your interests in proportion to the degree you develop self-confidence. Perhaps only by being aggressive will you be able to attain a desired end. Count more on your own efforts rather than on those of others. Journalism, teaching, lecturing, designing, selling and clerical work are among the lines of employment to which you should find no trouble in adapting yourself. You should make an excellent housewife, a devoted mate and mother. If you aspire to social position, you should find little difficulty in achieving it, providing you have the financial means.

The child born on June 21 may, during its preparatory school days, be inclined to suffer from bashfulness. Its parents should do everything possible to discourage this characteristic in a tactful way. Fustling, nagging or teasing methods are a great mistake.

If a man, and June 21 is your natal day, success should crown your efforts if you assert yourself and at all times take the initiative in the formulating of business policies. Your qualifications may become substantially recognized through literature, printing, law engineering, or some commercial line of activity.
